

HUGH M. CUMMINGS HIGH SCHOOL BURLINGTON, N.C. 27215

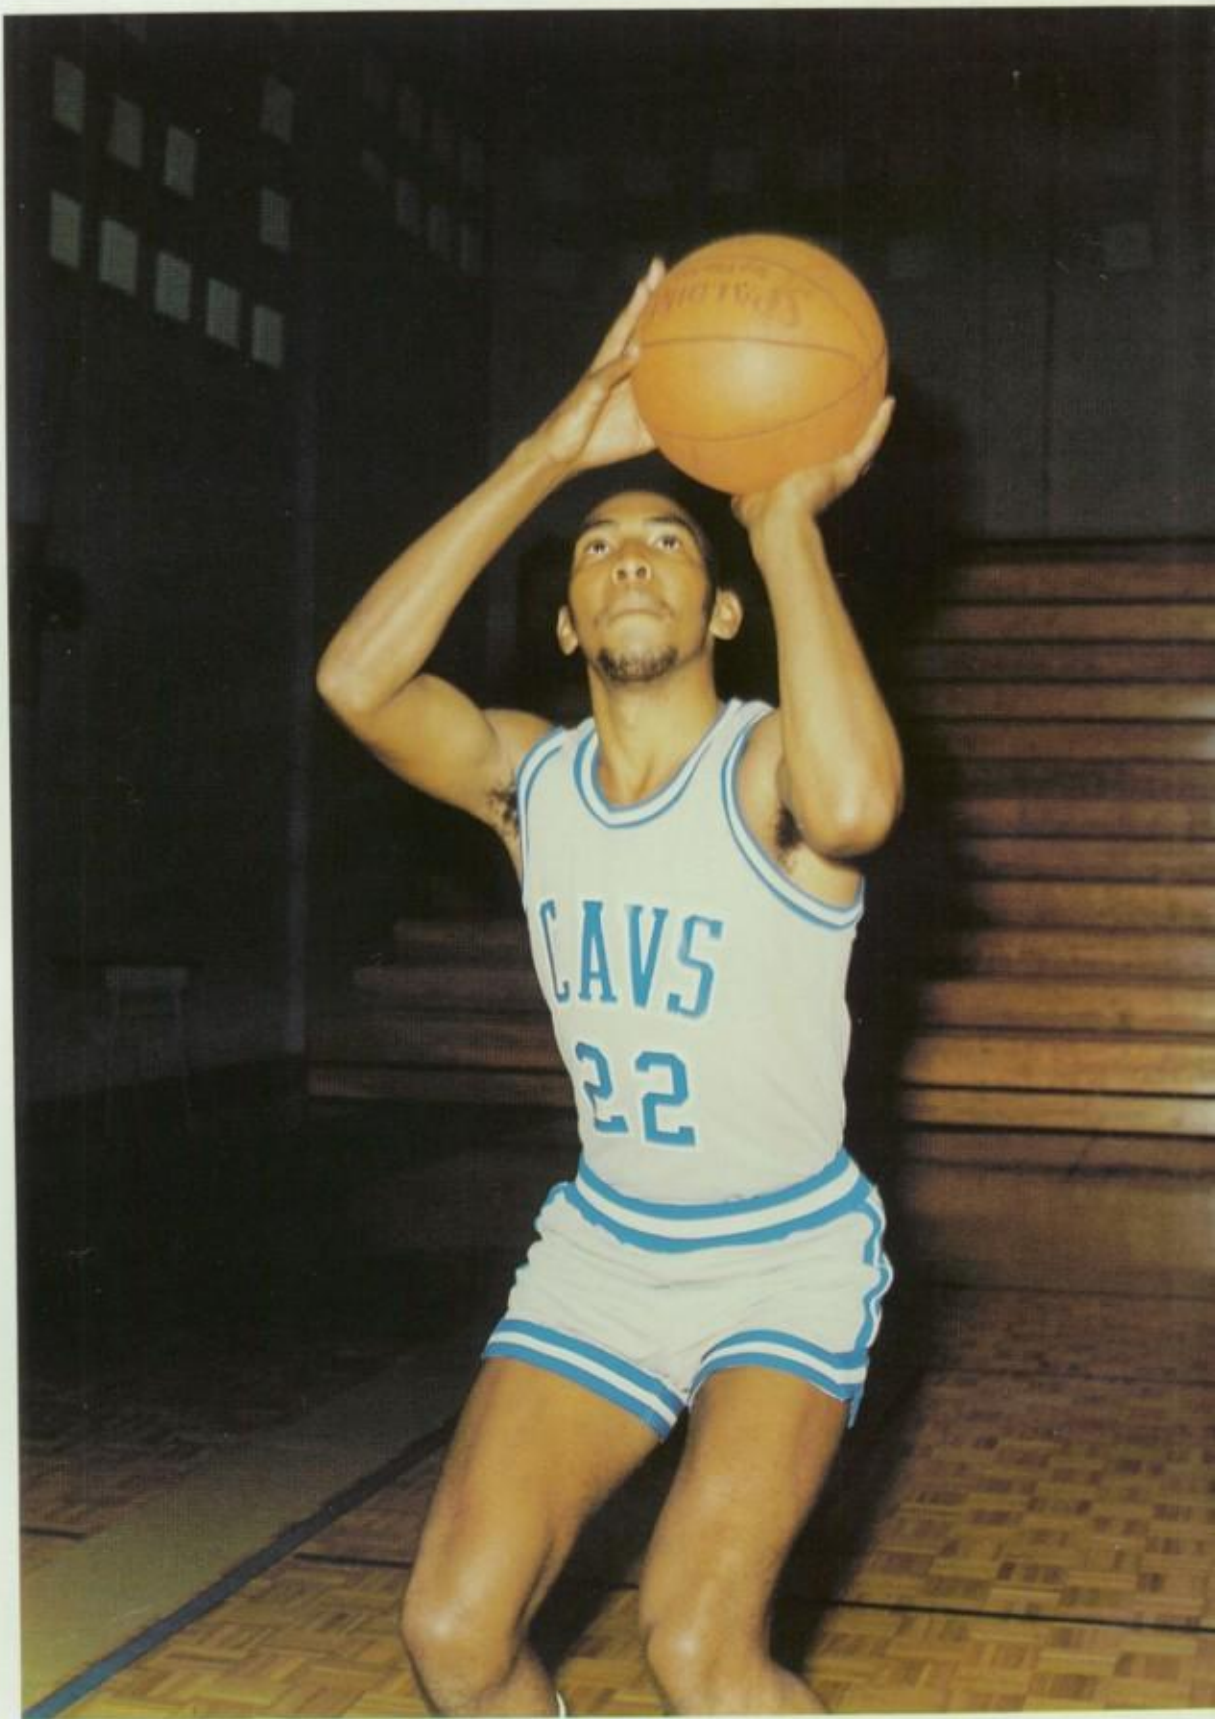

A Capacity For Uniqueness

Cavaliers . . .

Long hours and hard work. The memories of teamwork will last forever.

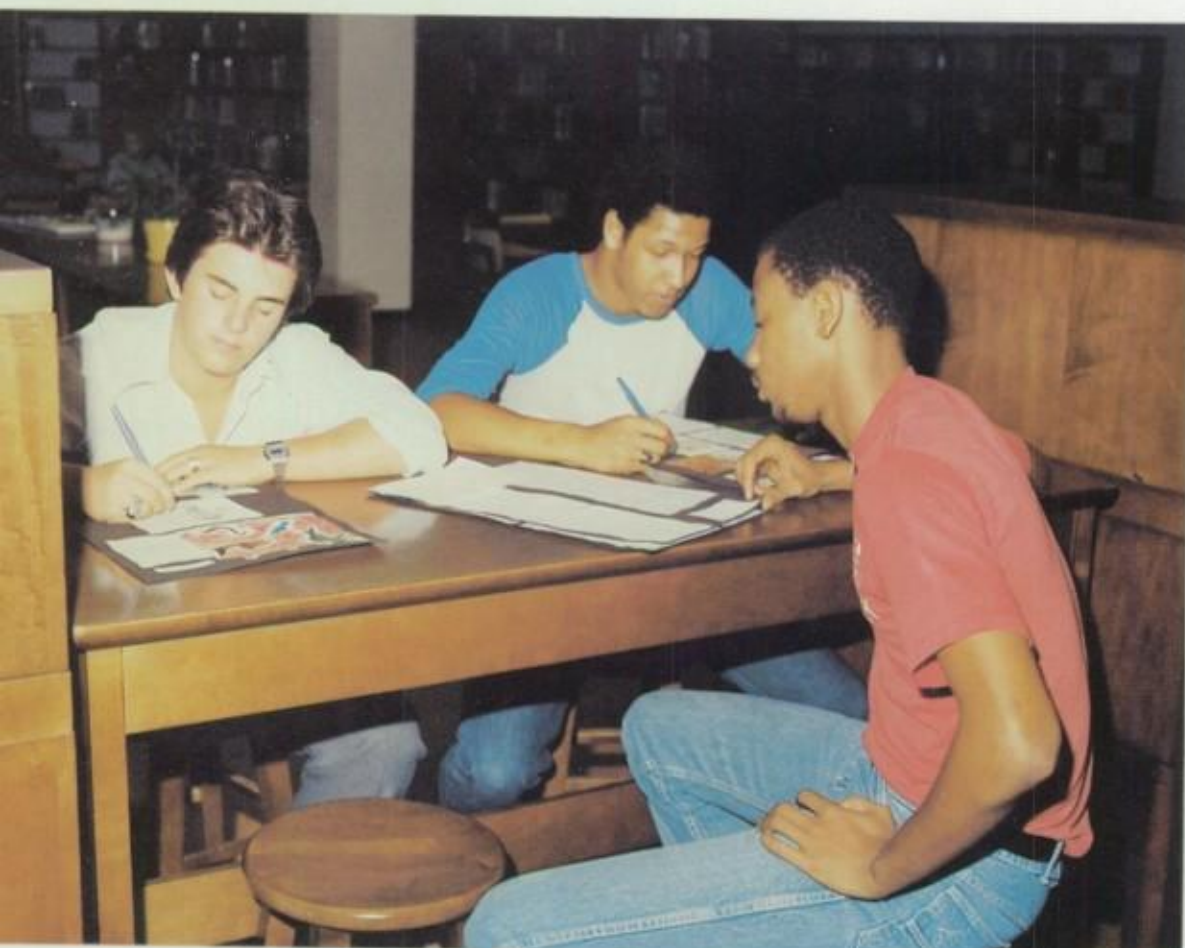

"Cummings has always had a winning tradition. We just want to keep it that way." Kent Gattis

Dedication and commitment are a must to march with the Cavalier Band. Colorguard Lea Ann Jones knows. It's 5:30 again and she's still at school practicing.

Cheerleading practice is grueling too. But the work pays off when Brenda Arnold puts on that blue and gold and leads the school in a cheer.

"Do all this work? You've got to be kidding!" Another Chavis Crisp original, while seniors Todd Kelley and Joey Burnette work diligently. "Anything," Joey says, "so long as I graduate."

"The sections to my left and right please stand and exit through the side doors."

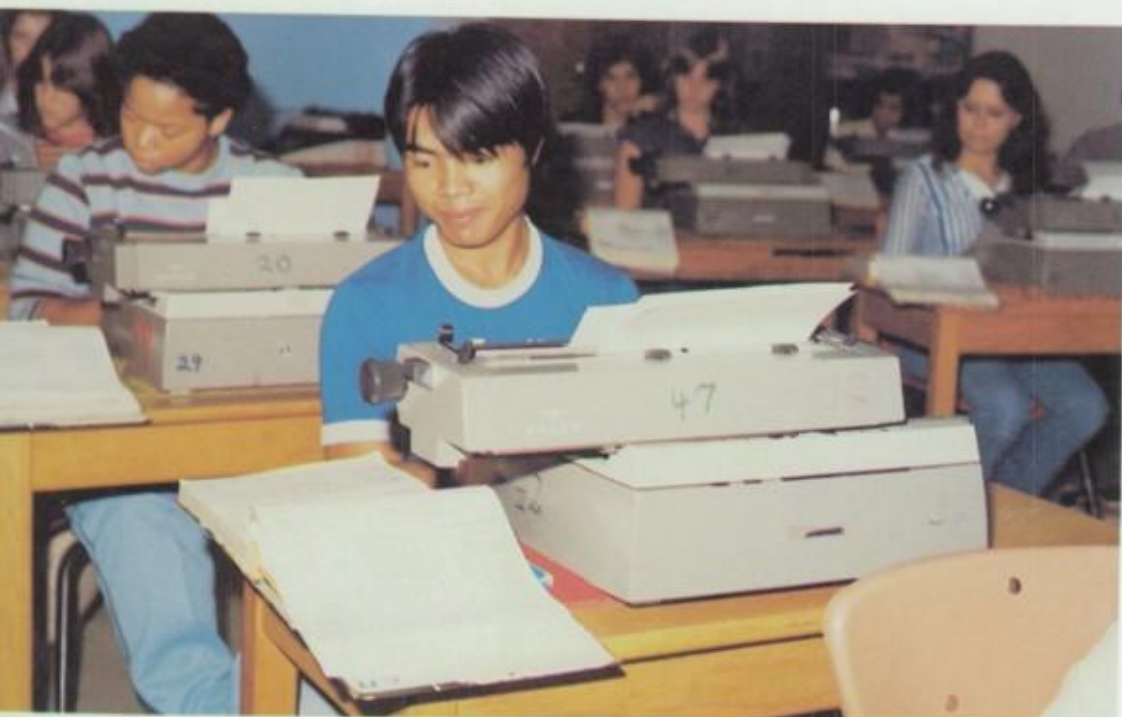

Working And Practicing Hard

Creating the sound for Friday night's game — Cavalier style.

A splash of blue here and a speck of gold there. Donna Pernell and Chuck Hodge help transform a piece of cardboard into a senior class display. Hard work, but worth it.

Kent Thompson and Lisa Gentry pit themselves against the computer. Guess who won!

ASDFJKL; ASDFJKL; ... Typing class. Who could forget it? We'll be reciting those letters forever. ASDFJKL;

In Contemplation

Get that fresh start everyday piling noteworthy information into the teachers' boxes. Jo Anna Lowe does it right. Last stop Hartley; next stop Hartsell.

Graduation seems lightyears away to Robbie Joyce and Lisa Brown as they try to distinguish primary sources from secondary sources.

And At Play

Just wasting the State's time and loving every minute of it.

Todd Lee attacked by the monster plant in the Writing Lab at last.

Being a Cav is special because I know we are Number One and I love being first.
Bronnie Shoffner

Such Energy

Football is not just the glory and excitement that you see on game day. There's a lot of practice to ensure a successful season.

"Cow" lines are a part of the preparation. Our two captains head the lines. They try to promote enthusiasm and pep up the team so we will be in the right frame of mind for practice. Up and down, forward and backward, we do all kinds of things.

"Team" is the hardest part of practice. After we run plays, we condition ourselves. We run sprints and a few hard laps around the field. Sometimes you look back on practice and wonder "Is it worth it all?" Then comes the feeling of success when you win and you know that it was worth everything!

— Eric Crawford

Such Drive

Scott Cantrell offers his assistance in the making of a champion. "This is the part of football," Scott says, "that people never see."

Andy Goolsby rocks with the cheerleaders at another of those memorable pep rallies.

"Whipping it for a victory ..."

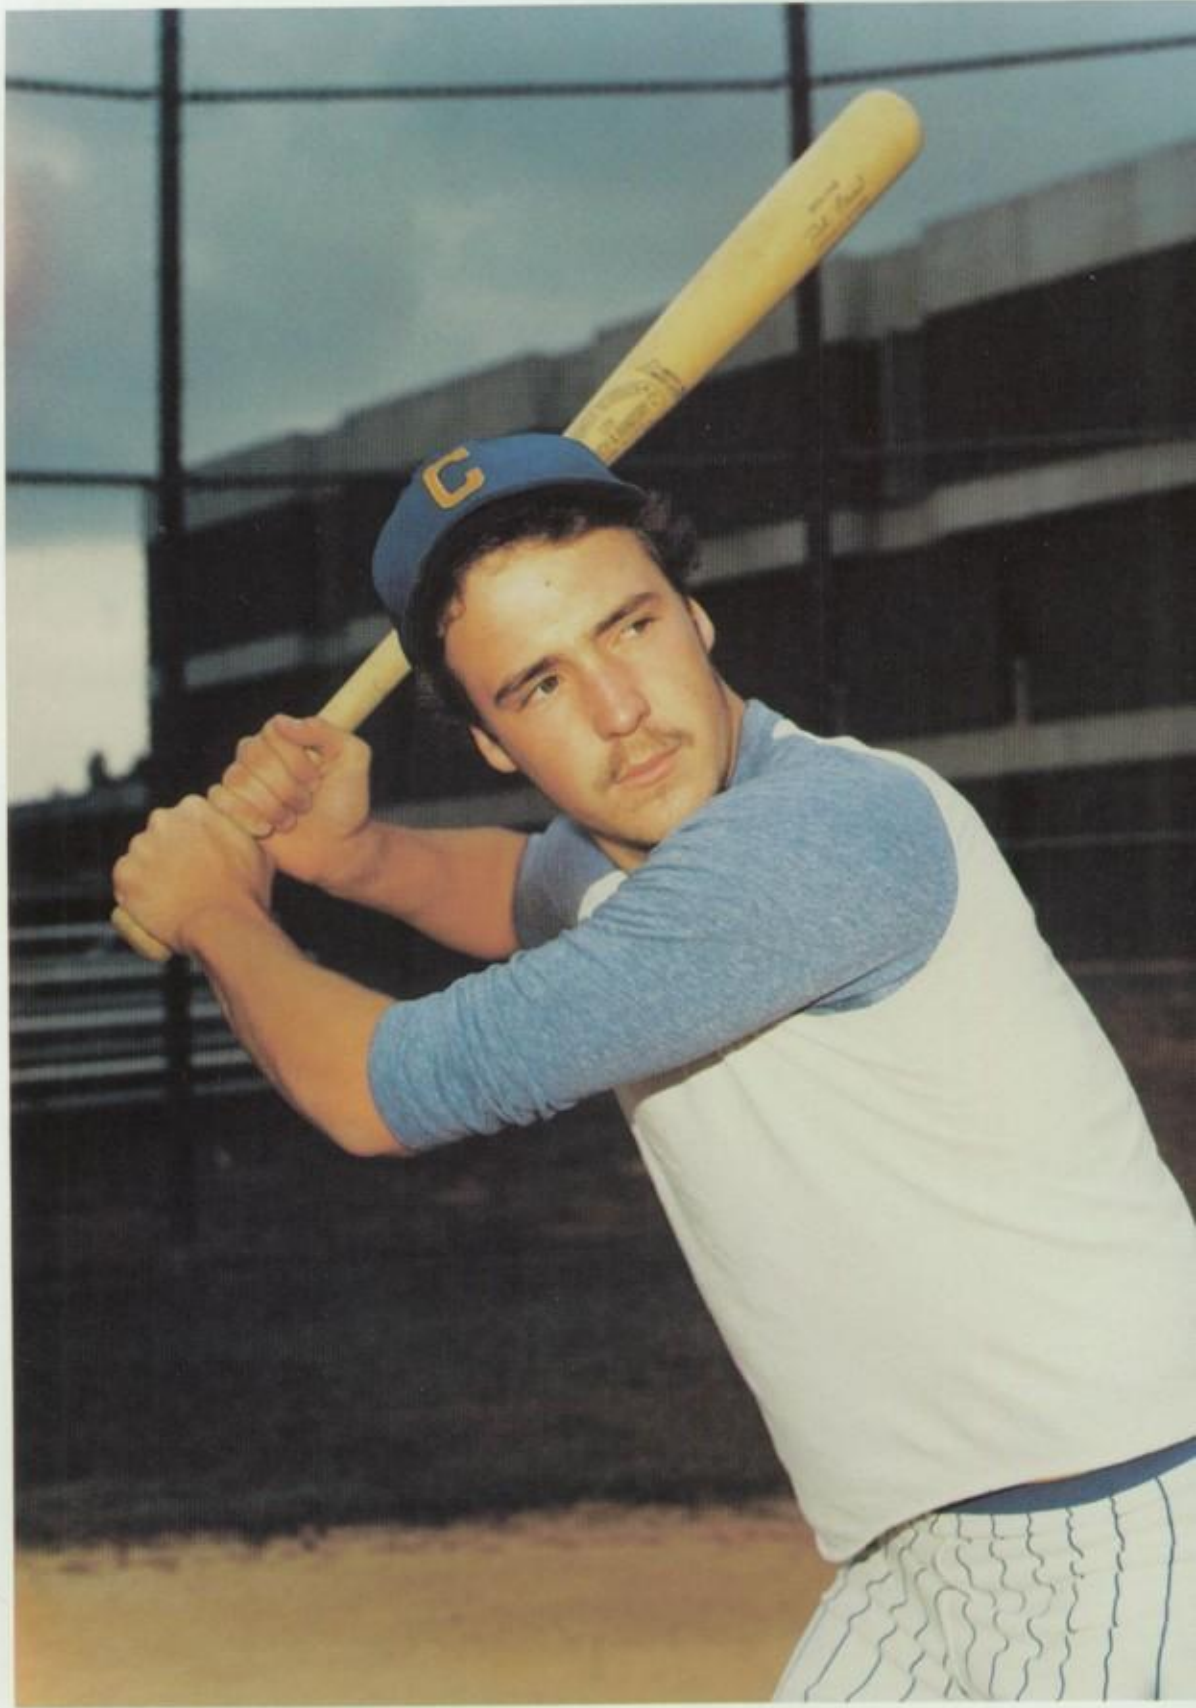

The march gets tiring. The constant step makes you stiff. But you drive on anyway in the name of Cavalier Spirit.

Watch carefully or Myron Gaylord's sticky fingers will dribble right past you.

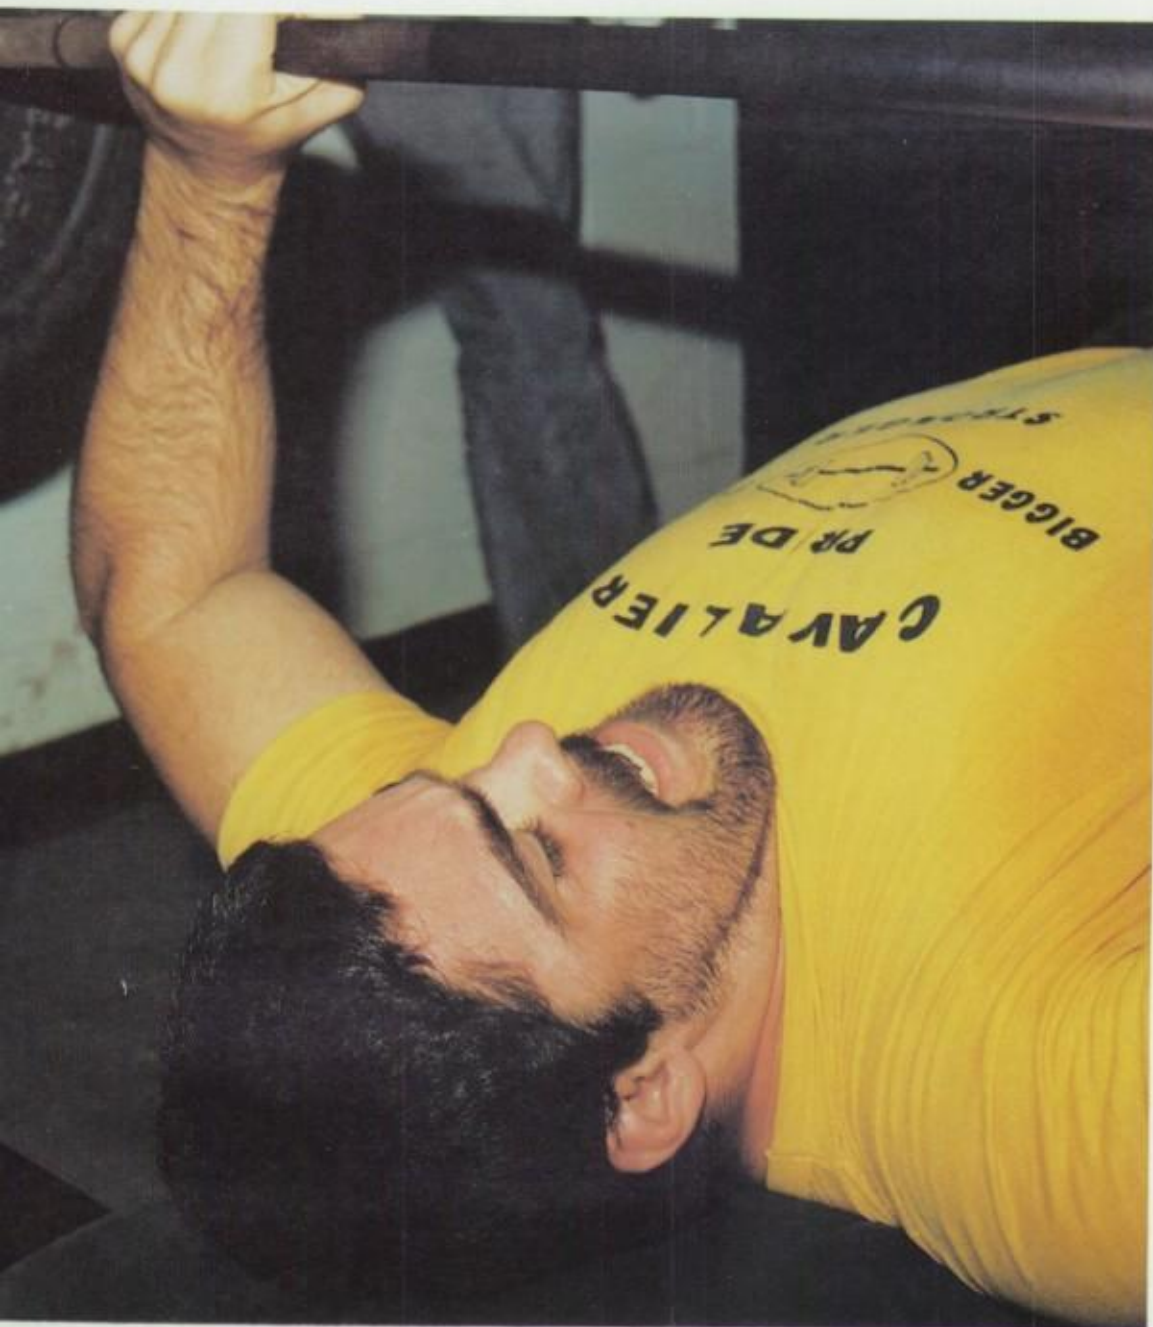

Spirit in the commons. It happens every Friday morning before a big game. Give me a "C" ...

Such Force

Jeff Brawn — Posed and ready as usual. Our first baseman at bat. Go for it J

What a strenuous exercise! I do it every day in my weight lifting program. It's called the "bench press" and I use it to lift 315 pounds four times.
— Leon Waddell

Hitting volleys requires a lot of coordination and speed. I usually practice about 30 minutes a day.
— Rodney Evans

We've Got . . .

. . . Uncommon Spirit!

A pep rally that morning . . . Missing most of homeroom . . . Still, a senior portrait.

They clapped at the camera click, cried at the thought of leaving and cared more than one would think possible. They've been babied and beaten . . . seen bad times, boisterous times and better times. They're so different, so special. Our class of '83 — so uncommonly unique.

Writing, researching and conversing, it's all in a day's work to Temesia Mansfield and Tammy Lankford.

A Reminder Of What We Can Be

On April 22, 23, and 24, 1982, the Fine Arts Department opened its doors to people waiting to see "Bye Bye Birdie." The musical cast David Leonard as rock 'n roll idol Conrad Birdie having only a few days left before going into the army. Birdie ended up on the Ed Sullivan Show with teenager Kim Macaffee (Leigh Ann Suddath), president of the Birdie Fan Club in Sweet Apple, Ohio. Hugo Peabody (James Gray), Kim's jealous boyfriend, is mad at the whole idea. Meanwhile, Chuck Kelly, Penny Miles and Danny Frye (Kim's family) kept us laughing with "Kids."

The entire time, Albert Peterson (Allen Horne) was trying to bring fame and fortune into Birdie's life, while Rose Alvarez (Donna Horton) was trying to get Albert to notice her.

"It's only 5 miles," said Mae Peterson (Janet Shoemaker). "I'll just walk."

Birdie sings "Last Kiss" to Kim on the Sullivan show before leaving for the army.

Ursula tells Birdie "We've Got a Lot of Livin' to Do" near the show's end.

During "The Telephone Hour" teenagers spread the word that Kim and Hugo are pinned.

Albert Peterson (Allen Horne) tells everyone what a good person Birdie (David Leonard) is.

Rosie explains that even though Birdie has his faults, he's a fine, understanding, patriotic, healthy, normal, American boy.

“One In A Million . . . You!”

May 8, 1982, prom night, the commons was turned into a “Medieval Paradise.” The setting centered around the theme “One In A Million . . . You!”

The juniors spent many countless hours in preparing for the special occasion. Their work consisted of finding a band, selling invitations, and transforming the cafeteria into a castle.

All attending students put time and effort into getting ready for the exciting evening. Shopping for formal gowns and tuxedos proved to be a big task, and much different than slipping on faded jeans and T-shirts. However, states Tracy Brown, “It was worth every bit of the time I spent preparing for it.”

The final touch was added when Wy-lissa Bennett announced Barry Hicks and Carissa Crawford prom king and queen.

Carissa Crawford and Barry Hicks, elected by their senior class, pose as the 1981-82 prom king and queen.

Carissa Crawford shared the special moment of being announced prom queen with Richard Jaroz.

Barry Hicks slow danced with Jeanette Terrell after he was announced prom king.

Richard Hawn decided he would wear his hat even on this special night as he danced with Barbara Hale.

The band "Sparkle" performed the students favorite hits, such as "Call Me" by Skky, and the theme song "One In A Million You" by Larry Graham.

Ron Alston showed Joey Burnette the real way to throw down as he danced to the music.

Bobby Parker brightened up the dance floor, as he showed everyone his way of dancing.

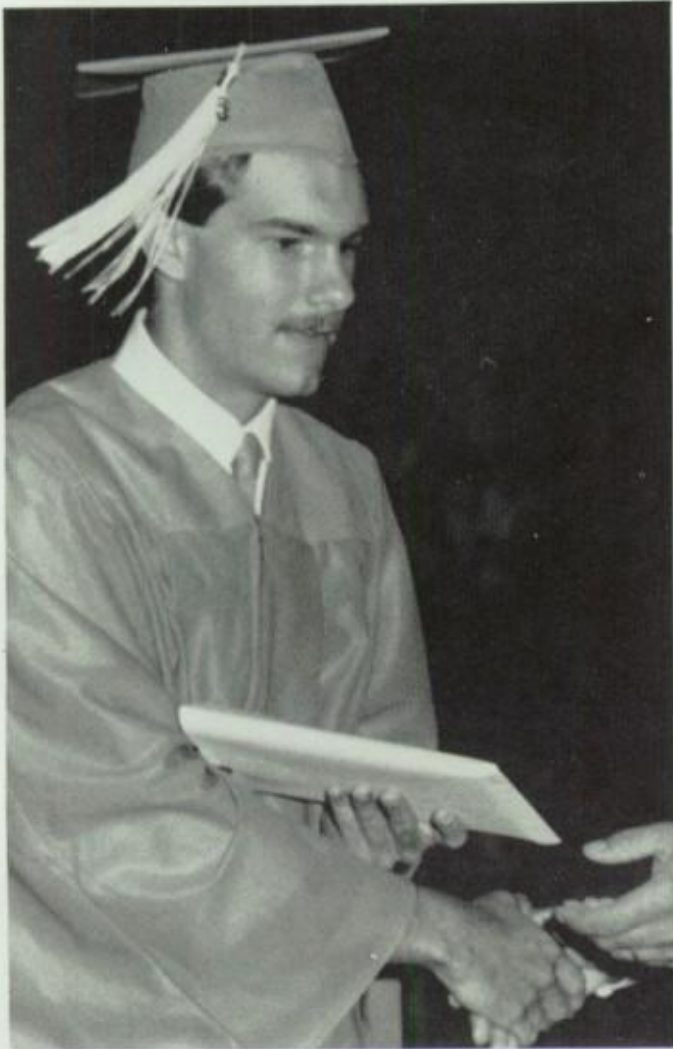

Graduation: June 11, 1982

You've Come A Long Way, Baby!

On June 11, 1982, the doors of the Cummings Gymnasium were opened to parents, teachers, friends, and most importantly, the graduating class of '82.

While the students marched in and listened to the speakers, tears fell as Seniors realized that this was the last time they would be together at Cummings High as a class.

Todd Black accepts his diploma from Dr. Surratt.

Kande Dixon, Donna Horton and Penny Miles sing "Sometimes" with Harmony.

The 1982 graduating class of Cummings High School.

Valedictorian, Susan Mears and Salutatorian, Jennie Robertson were the first students at Cummings to receive Honor Pendants.

After twelve years of hard work, Barry Hicks is proud to get his diploma.

The seniors marching in to find their seats.

Chuck Kelly, Carina Muehl, and Eddie Huffman enjoyed a hearty breakfast before the big graduation night.

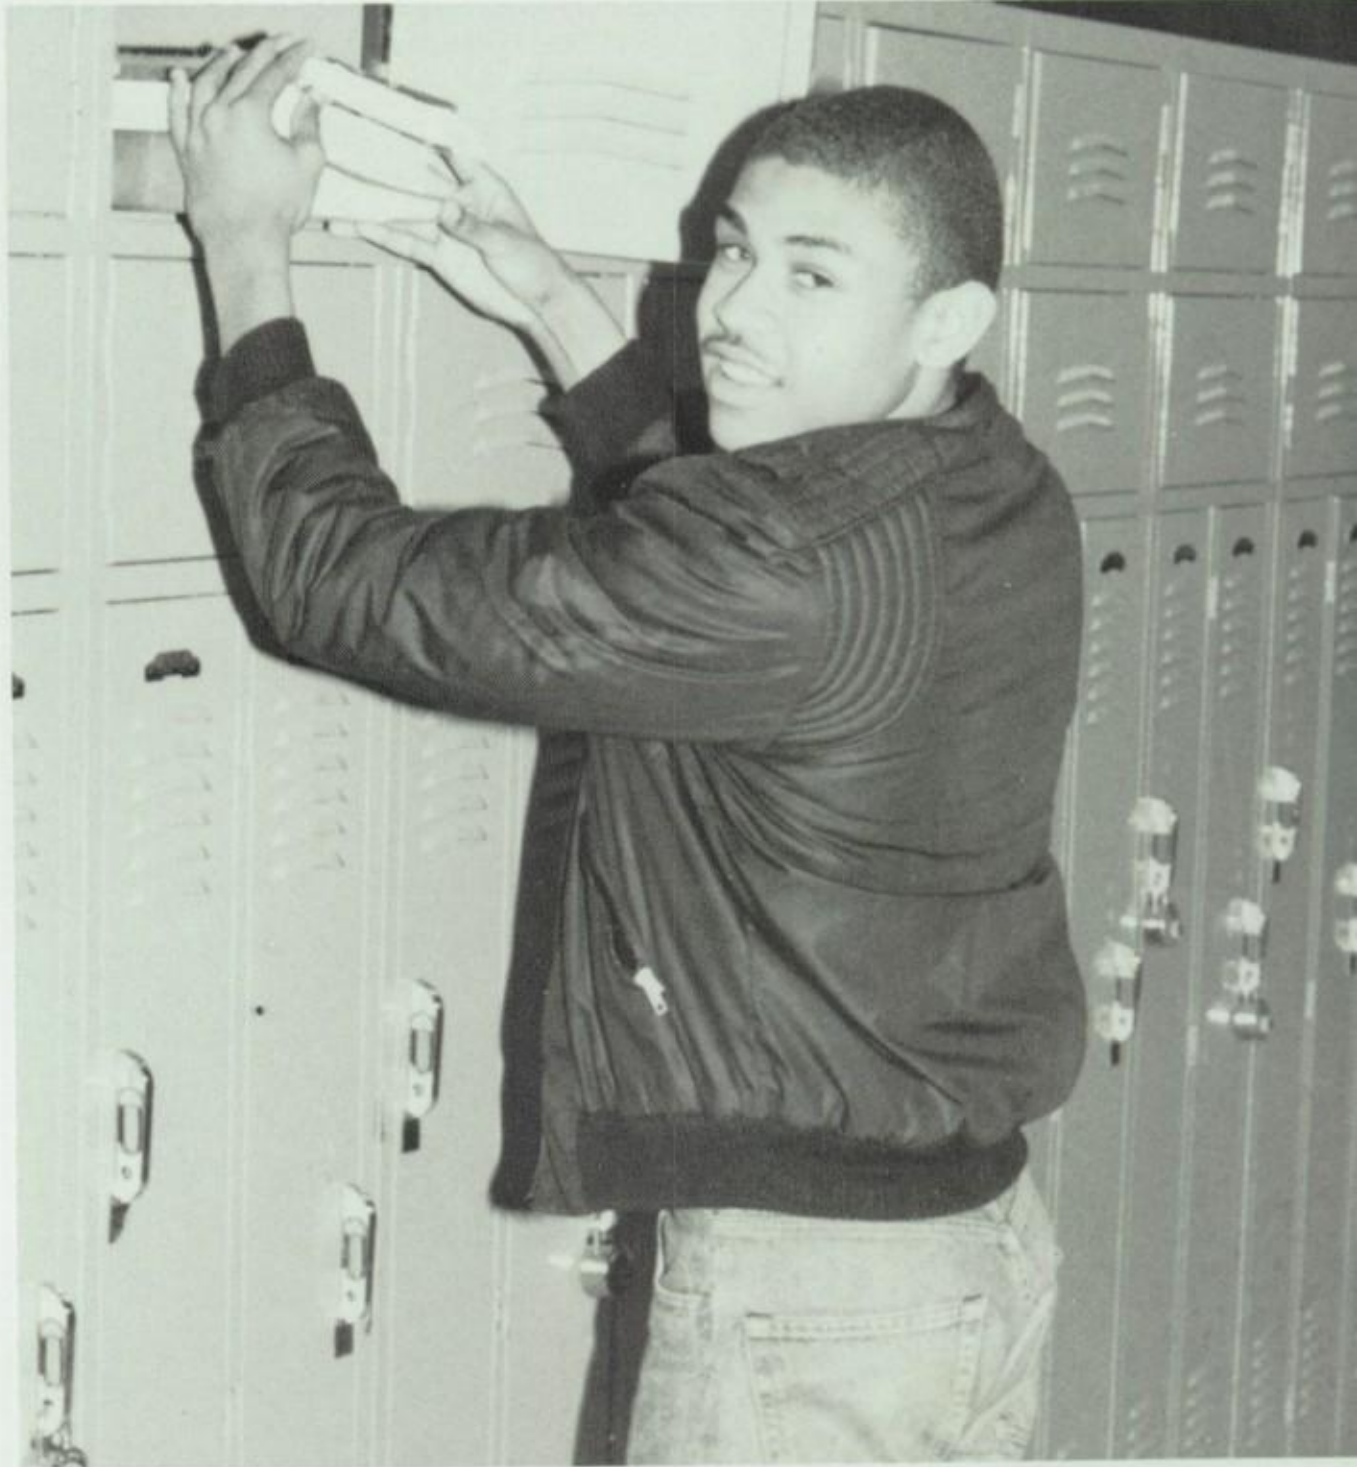

Having been Senior Class President, Ronnie Winebarger had to set a good example for breakfast nutrition.

Getting Back Into The Swing Of Things

After a summer of sun and fun, the big day came, August 25, students came back to school with fantastic tans and left over dreams of the summer.

Seniors, juniors and sophomores had a difficult time getting reacquainted with teachers and homework. Freshmen on the other hand had a hard time finding their way around. This was a whole new environment, "High School".

During lunch Ronald Reid anxiously digs through his locker to get his books ready for class.

Wyllisa Bennett, Vicki Stewart, Cynthia Morrow, Lisa Wilson and Teresa Simmons discuss the latest news while showing off their "head wear".

Amanda Neal, Marla Harris, Tam Evans, Anita Bigelow, and Donna Gant take a little time out from lunch to give the camera a smile.

"My calculus book, my physics book, where can they be . . ." Greg Parsons like everyone else has trouble getting back into the swing of things.

George Pulliam, Steve Moore, Rocky Tickles and Jimmy Chrisco hungrily wait in line to get their food.

The Spirit Of Homecoming

Havoc prevailed at Cummings on the Friday of Homecoming. Some students were trying to fix their costumes, others were running around looking for their club's flower, and still others were just waiting to see if the weather would disrupt their Homecoming activities.

The moment of decision arrived and Mr. Freeman announced, "The parade has been postponed until Monday."

Monday rolled around and chaos prevailed once more. Costumes had to be put on again, and signs for the cars had to be fixed by 3:30. The parade began to move at 4:00 with school spirit shining through.

During the parade, Student Council sponsors, Loryn Payne and Amy Willets, were prepared for the rodeo.

The reigning Miss Cummings High School, Lisa Brown, leads the parade off with her escort, Kent Thompson.

The Cavalcade staff was represented by these two circus characters, Tracy Brown and Jimmy Bodenheimer.

October 4-8 the spirit of Homecoming swept through Cummings High. Students showed their enthusiasm when they participated in the events of Spirit Week. The week started off Monday with Jerseys and T-Shirts. On Tuesday, students were dressed as clowns, dancers, and other circus characters. Wednesday was the Sophiscated Day. On Thursday, black was worn to represent the funeral of the rival Orange High School Panthers. The week ended on Friday by dressing in our school colors, blue and gold.

"Spirit Week was a lot of fun and I enjoyed participating" said sophomore, Sherry Allen.

Participating in Jersey Day, Alisa Wilson and Betty Jeffers discussed their magazine references for a history research paper.

Earl Williamson posed in his Sunday outfit to show that freshmen could be sophiscated, too.

The Crowning Event

Homecoming in the rain was a night to remember. How could we forget sitting at the game getting drenched?

At half time our excitement made us forget the rain, as we awaited the glorious moment of truth. The crowd was quiet and then the announcer, Kirk Puckett, introduced the royal couple, David Gordon and Rhonda Baynes.

Our spirits weren't dampened by the rain as we cheered the Cavaliers on to a 14-3 victory over the Orange High School Panthers.

Immediately after Rhonda Baynes was crowned Homecoming Queen Terri Haith was there to congratulate her.

Rhonda McClure and David Gordon stand in the rain anticipating the crowning event.

A multitude of students tell Rhonda Baynes that she was their choice for Homecoming Queen.

David Gordon and Rhonda Baynes display their royal elements, the septr, crown, and red roses.

Linda Rogers and Charles Haith represent the junior class well.

Kent Gattis, Betty Jeffers, and Rhonda McClure look on while Neal Phillips congratulates the new reigning king David Gordon.

Elegant Ways To Remember

The Class of '83 broke a record this year. For the first time in Cavalier history, the ladies had to retake their senior pictures. The flash wasn't bright so the girls got out of English class for another day. On October 6th the senior ladies were dressed in drapes again.

The young men got to dress up and look very dignified in black tuxedos, while the ladies were able to pick among red, light blue, dark blue, dark green, and burgundy drapes.

The seniors weren't expecting so much work when they came to have their pictures taken. Some girls brought their curlers and did their hair along with their makeup. The boys wore the dressy white shirts so they could change into the tuxedo look.

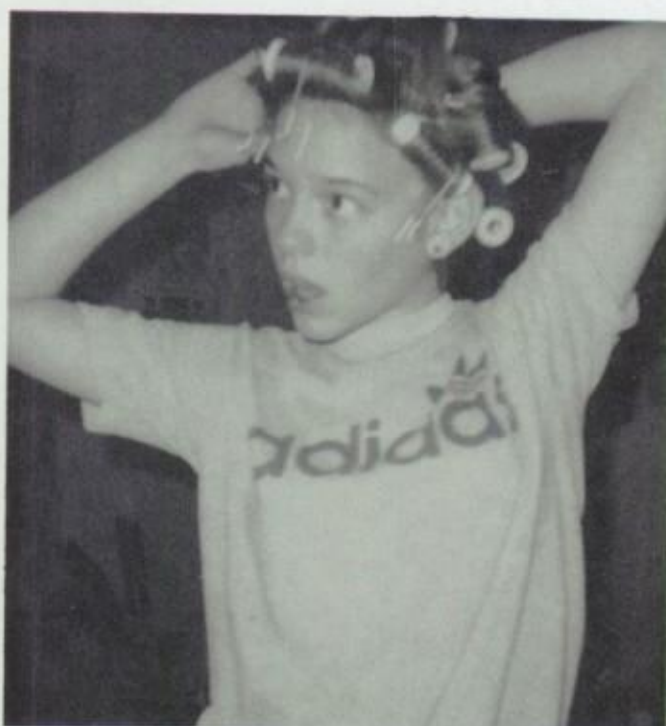

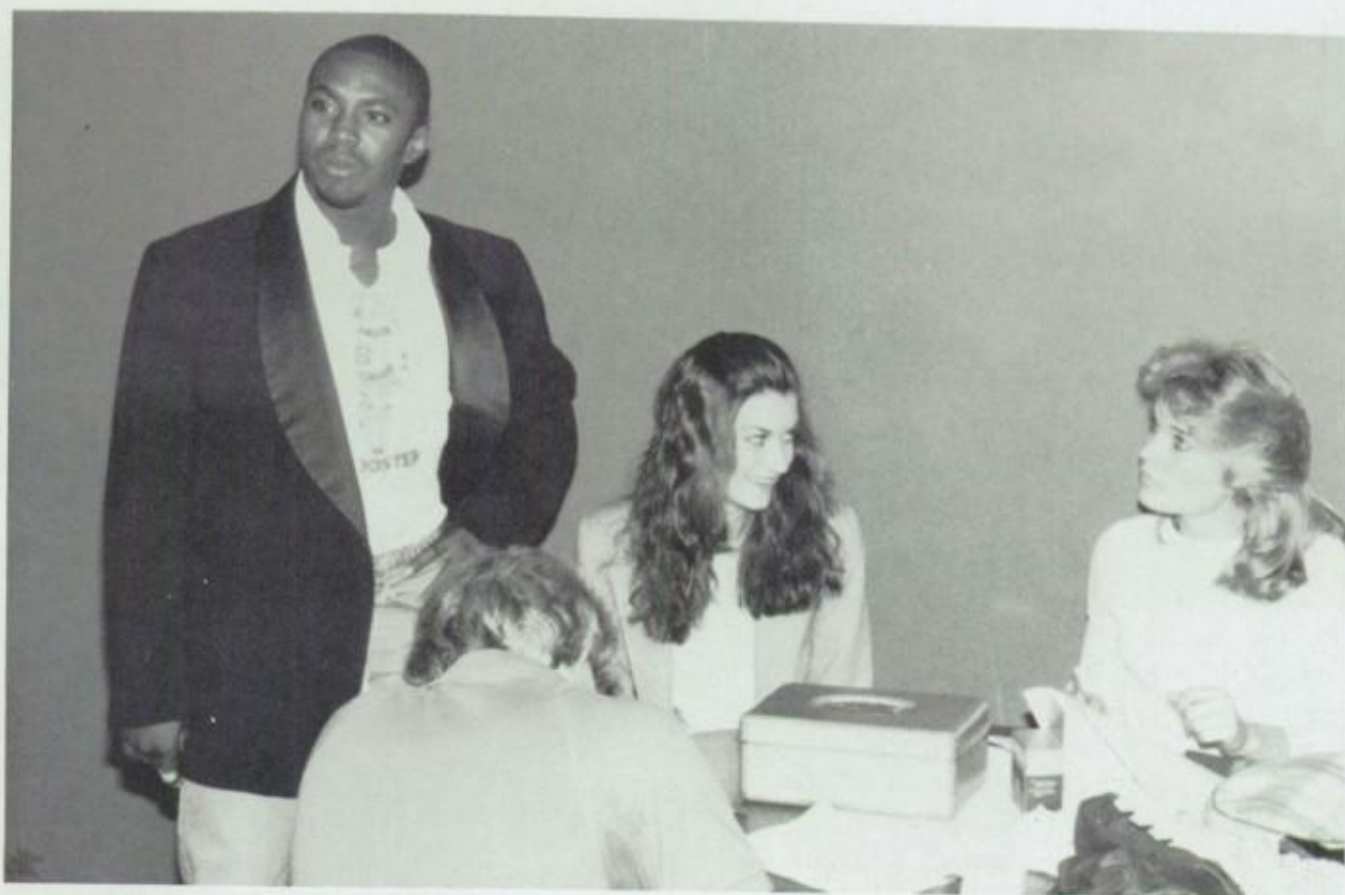

Rodney Evans gets ready to model the tuxedo. In the past years the guys have had blue or yellow tuxedos, but this year black was the color of the tuxedo.

Who's this man behind the Camera? It is Rick Campbell, the school photographer. Campbell is the person who takes all of the school pictures.

Tammy Lankford and Debbie Shaw look on while Orlando Burton models the new style-jeans, t-shirt, and tuxedo jacket. Do you think the fad will catch on?

Kim Sykes knows how to take pictures. She brings her curlers to school to re-style her hair after hours of class before posing for portraits.

Respect Yourself Review

James Penniegraft carefully tells the audience his "preference" to older women.

Todd Rhodes gets knocked out by Jimmy Bodenheimer and Craig Carroll just for complaining about the rent.

Kim Sykes and Rocky Tickles dance to the hit "I'm Coming Out".

Senior Class President, Chuck Hodge presides over the festivities and also brings the audience to tears with his predictions for the future.

Lights . . . Camera . . . Action! Assemblies. We always looked forward to them and wondered what period they affected and the class that would be missed. Many preparations, time, and efforts were put into the success of the assemblies. The juniors and seniors had the chance to attend the "Respect Yourself Review" while the seniors attended the Wedding presented by Family Life.

On November 19, 1982, the "Respect Yourself Review" assembly began with Loryn Payne discussing American Education Week in its past, present, and future forms. After the brief introduction of the show, Chuck Hodge lead up to three areas of concentration. The categories discussed in the review dealt with depression, aggression, and happiness within yourself. Music was provided by Harmony along with students demonstrating their talents. Poems by Langston Hughes served as the backbone of the performances. The whole program was quickly summed up by the fortune-teller who said "... Your fortune is right inside yourself, you ain't gonna find it on nobody else's shelf." The finale of the show ended with a dance routine to the smash hit "I'm Coming Out". Everybody involved on the review received an A for the day.

A wedding is always a special occasion for those involved. On November 23, 1982, the seniors had the privilege to attend the marriage of David Tucker to Terri Haith along with Chuck Hodge to Renee Zimmer. All of the students from Family Life were involved in this ceremony portraying bridesmaids, bestmen, maids-of-honor and ushers. The highlight of the wedding was when the preachers announced, "You may kiss the brides." Immediately following, the couples left the auditorium to meet with guests at the reception. The total performance was simply "delightful."

Vocational students at Sellars Gunn prepare themselves for industrial work after graduation. Classes prepare them for work in the field they are trained in and for related courses.

This type of classroom industrial work gives students confidence and understanding about the world of work, and enables them to pursue possible future goals.

Nobody Does It Better

Everyday at 3:15, Mr. Freeman can be seen overseeing the students' departure.

In one of his many conferences, Mr. Freeman discussed the possibilities of further improving the students' competency test scores.

The students of Cummings High School are very fortunate to have the leadership and guidance of their principal, Mr. J.A. Freeman. This man can be seen talking with students in the school; he does not just sit in his office.

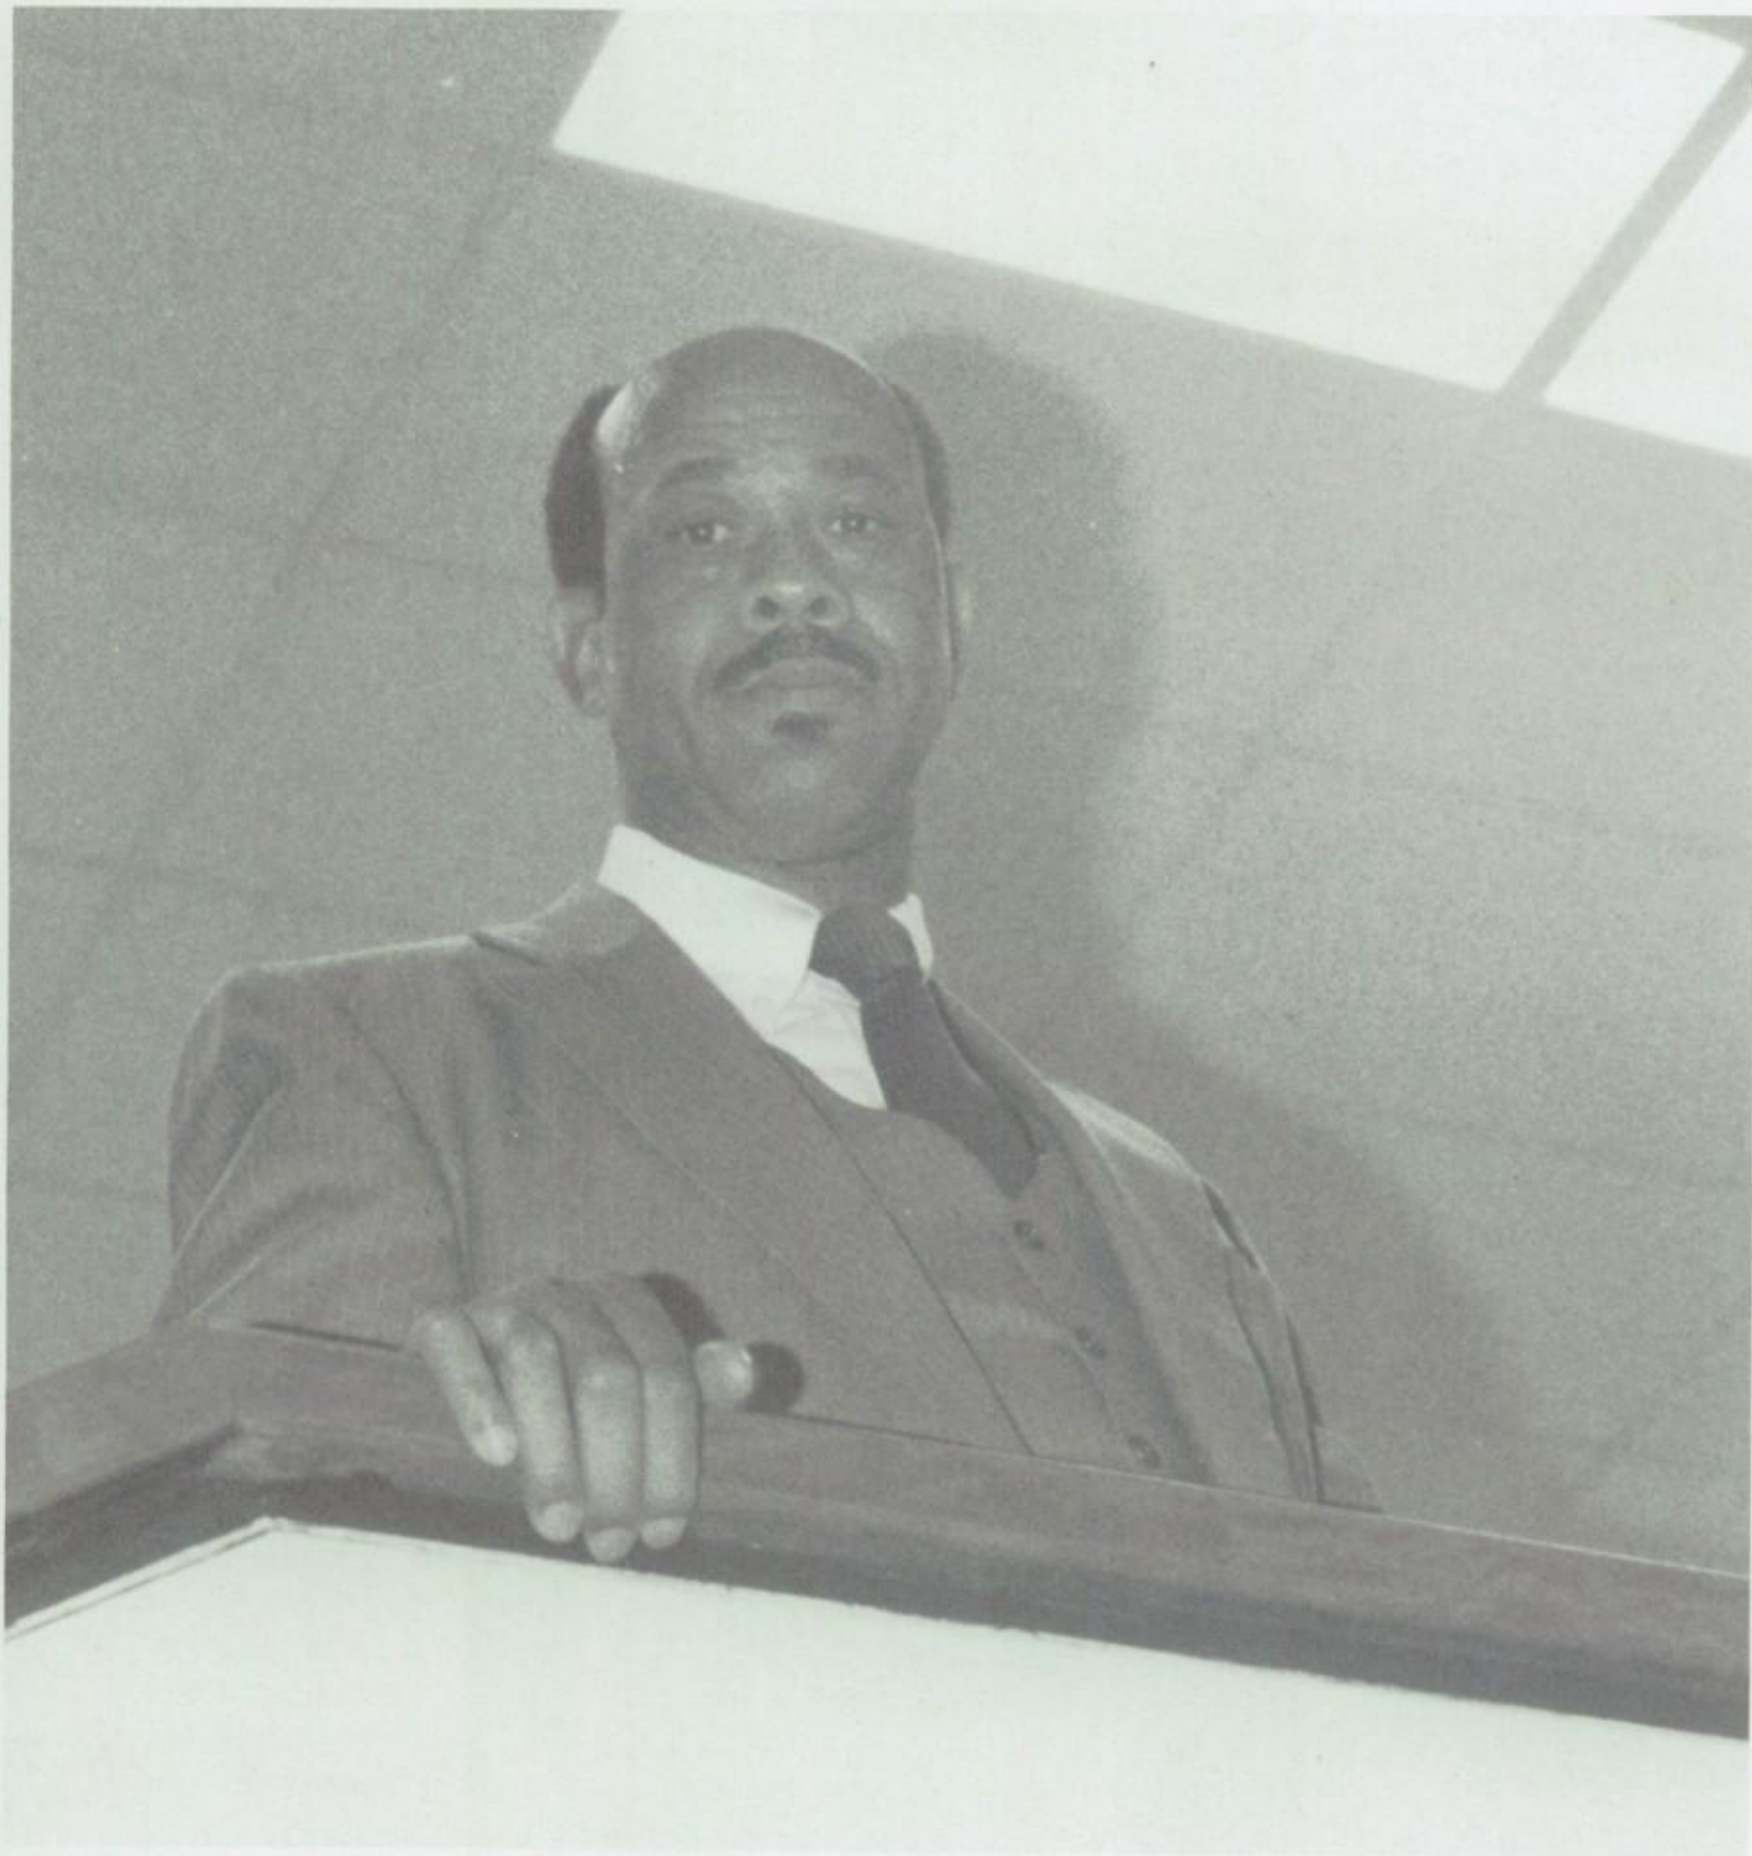

Mr. Freeman does not have a popular position, but he has the courage to stand up for his viewpoint. There are times when his decisions don't go over too well, but Mr. Freeman wouldn't make them if he didn't feel they were the best thing for the students.

Mr. Freeman received the Bachelor of Science degree from North Carolina A and T State University, the Master of Science degree from North Carolina College in Durham, and the Advanced Certificate in administration from North Carolina Central University.

In the year 1982, J.A. Freeman celebrated his twenty-sixth year of service in public education. He has taught at Central High School in Whiteville, North Carolina and W.A. Patillo High School in Tarboro. Then in 1965 he assumed the principalship of Jordan-Sellers High School in Burlington.

In 1970, Mr. Freeman took on the responsibilities of Cummings High School. He has worked effectively to see that Cummings High School is a comprehensive senior high school which is recognized throughout the state for academic and athletic achievements. He's the man behind the scene that makes things work. For these reasons, we dedicate the '82-'83 edition of Nulli Secundus to him.

Mr. J.A. Freeman, the principal of Cummings, is also the Principal of the Year for District Nine

Tribute To A Living Queen

During the reception given by the Student Council, Loryne Payne presented a corsage to Dr. Helen LeGette.

The class of '86 missed out on an opportunity to meet and work with a terrific lady. Regrettably, Dr. Helen R. LeGette left the Cummings High School Faculty.

When Cummings High School opened its doors in 1970, Dr. LeGette walked through them as one of the guidance counselors. Before coming to Cummings; she was a guidance counselor at Eastern Alamance High School and Broadview Middle School.

During the 1979 graduation ceremony, Dr. LeGette received the honor of being the first person to hold the title of Outstanding Educator at Cummings High School. Then in 1981, she became the first woman to fill the position of assistant principal.

This remarkable lady had a way with teachers and students alike. She had a cheerful smile for everyone she met and knew everyone by name.

Unfortunately, in 1982, Dr. LeGette left Cummings to join the Central Office Management. She worked diligently for Cummings and we know she will work just as dependably for the good of the school systems.

"Dr. LeGette, you may have left the Cummings Faculty, but you will always have a special place in the hearts of people at Cummings High School."

Everyone was very attentive while Dr. LeGette gave her farewell address.

At the Student Council's reception many tokens of appreciation were bestowed upon LeGette.

Living In The Presence Of The Past

Mr. Bryan looks over the desk full of paper work he still has to do.

Mr. Jarrett and Mr. Bryan are the new members of the Cummings High School Administration.

Mr. Jarrett diligently plans his calendar for the next week.

When all of the students walked into Cummings on the first day of school they were met by two new members of the administration. Mr. Jarrett and Mr. Bryan joined the Cummings High School Team in 1982.

Mr. Gary W. Jarrett is our new administrative assistant. He taught Social Studies in Greensboro before coming to Burlington. He received all his training at UNC-G. Mr. Jarrett has a Bachelor of Arts in History and his Masters in Social Studies. Presently, he is doing Post Masters work in Educational Administration. When asked about Cummings he said that he was very impressed with the school spirit, teaching staff, and the behavior of the students.

"I am very happy to be here," he said. "I can't think of any school I'd prefer to be in."

He is married to Susan Jarrett and they have a lovely two year old daughter, Megan Amanda Jarrett.

Mr. Randall A. Bryan is the new assistant principal and athletic director. Before coming to Cummings, he taught at Sherwood Park in W. Va. He received his B.A. from Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., and his Masters from East Carolina. When asked about Cummings he spoke highly of this school.

"Cummings High School is a school that provides an outstanding opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to grow and learn together," said Mr. Bryan. He and his lovely wife Vanessa L. Bryan consider their Basett hound, Johann Sebastian II, as part of the family.

We welcome these two highly qualified men to Cummings.

You Make It Work

Being a secretary or a guidance counselor is more than sitting behind a desk each day. They have many countless tasks to perform in keeping the school system running smoothly. Many long hard hours are spent helping the students and teachers before, during, and after the school day.

Guidance counselors mainly assist students with their future plans after graduation. Without these people, we would be lost.

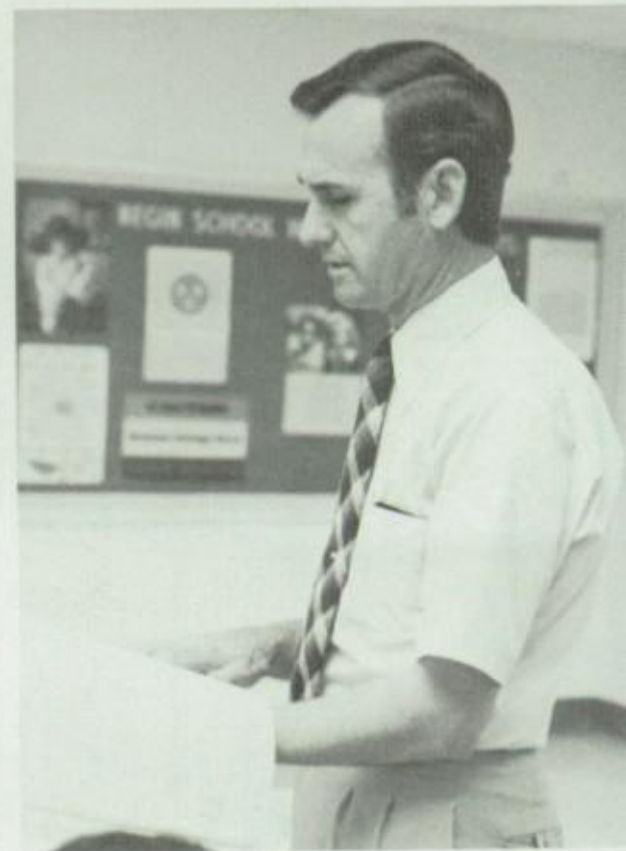

School board members Dr. Surratt, Ervin King, Sue Lamb, Terrell Duncan, Dr. Shanks, Bruce Perrou, Lynwood Smith and Jack Watts meet to discuss policies for the Burlington City Schools. Indeed, these are the people who make our system work.

Cafeteria workers enjoy the opportunity to taste a little of their own cooking.

Mr. Lee takes the break that he's been waiting for.

Our Cafeteria people, hard at work for the student body.

Mr. Evans thinks about the rest of his duties for the day.

Ms. Williams smiles as she thinks of a job well done.

For many years, we have relied upon a group of very important people who have not seen how much we care about their duties and the fine job which they have done. The people we are referring to are our custodians and cafeteria staff. They have put up with a lot from the students. They clean up after us, serve us our meals, and listen to our complaints. Our fine staff has done more for us than we could ever ask.

A few qualities you might notice are courtesy, cooperation, friendliness, and determination. Not many student bodies have so much support behind them.

If you need a good example of people who take pride in their work,

To acquaint you better with these people, we interviewed a few of them.

Q. "What has been the highlight of working at Cummings?"

A. Mr. Evans replied, "I enjoy working with the staff and students."

Mr. Johnson answered, "I enjoy the work I do."

Mr. Lee told us he enjoyed everything!

Q. "What sort of experience have you gained since you began your job?"

A. Mr. Lee answered, "I am able to cope better with the students."

Award Winning Educators

All the Cummings High School faculty members have accomplished exceptional things, but a few have been especially recognized for their work. The history of Cummings contains many recognized talents.

In 1979, Cummings started having an award for its own, Outstanding Educator of the Year, when students nominate any teacher. In '80, Dr. Helen Legette received this award. In '81 and '82, Chloe D. McPherson and Vera Davis received this special title.

Every year the Jaycees choose and Outstanding Young Educator. Cummings has been fortunate to have their teachers named on many occasions. The history of Cummings' teachers receiving this honor started in 1973 when Chloe D. McPherson was recognized for her hard work. Donna Oliver received the award in 1976, Gordon Millspaugh in 1978, Jane Tarlton in 1981, and in 1982, David Rockefeller won the award.

Additionally, there is an award for the Burlington City Schools Teacher of the Year. This award has been received by: Ann Hartsell in '77, Louise Pender in '78, and Wanda Padgett in '80.

Cummings has received honor for the specialization of three faculty members. In '79, Linda Lee received the title of North Carolina Teacher of the Year. In '81, Mr. J.A. Freeman became the District Nine Principal of the Year. This year another award has been brought home to Cummings. Donna Oliver received the title of North Carolina Exemplary Science Teacher from the National Science Teacher's Association.

With the excellent quality of this faculty many more awards will find their home at Cummings we are sure.

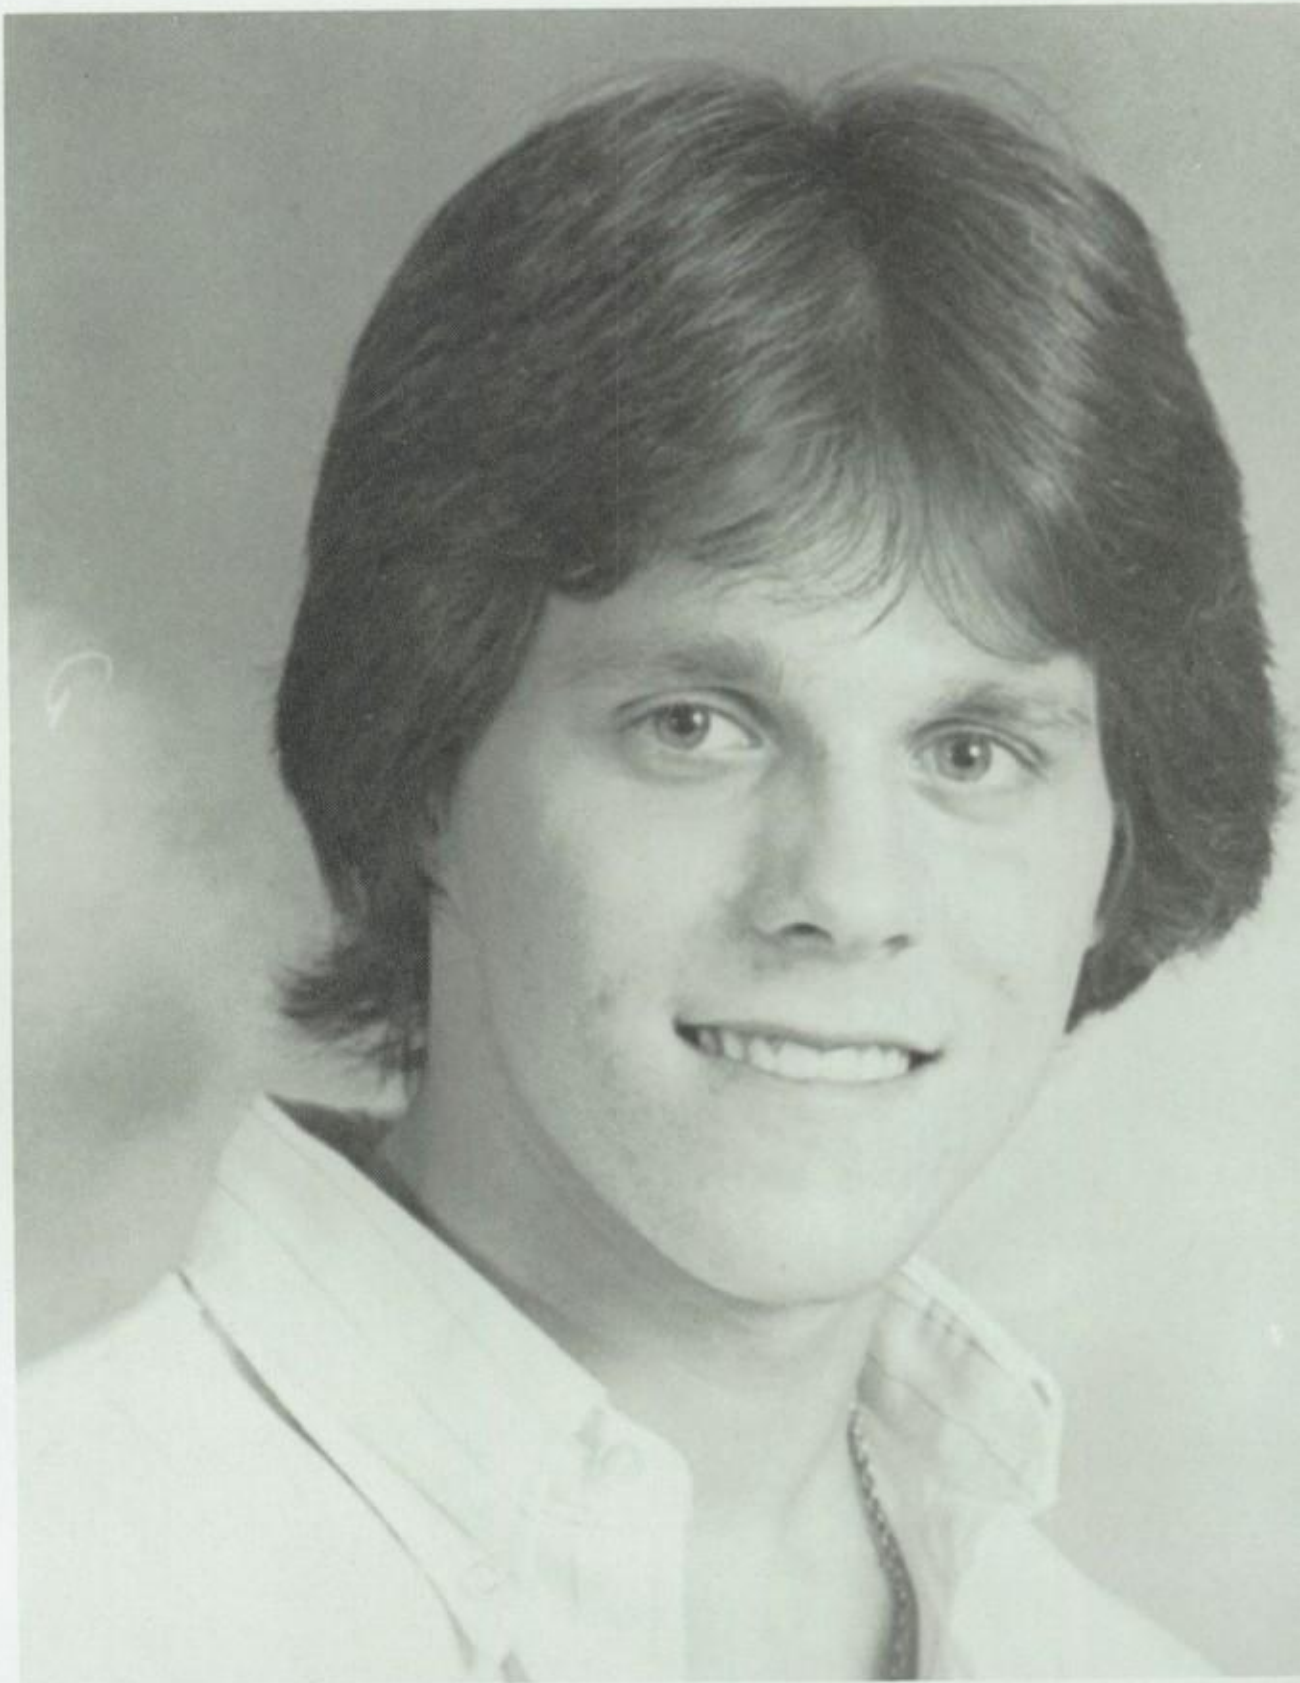

Mrs. Donna Oliver was chosen as North Carolina's Exemplary Science Teacher.

In 1982, Mrs. Vera Davis became Cummings' Outstanding Educator of the Year.

Mr. Freeman received the title of District Nine Principal of the Year.

Mr. David Rockefeller received the honor of being named Jaycees Young Educator of the Year in 1982.

The senior class officers are very important people to their class. They met with the faculty and discussed graduation exercises, they discussed senior activities and privileges, they were in charge of the senior float display for homecoming and lead the sponsorship of a senior gift. These two people were chosen by the senior class. They both gave excellent speeches which captured the senior class votes. Chuck Hodge's speech had been rehearsed, but when he began to talk in front of the senior class, he forgot all about the speech which he had planned. Instead, he started off the '82-83 school year with a blast! There were three candidates for secretary/treasurer. Rhonda Baynes was chosen for this position to assist the president in his goals for the senior class.

The Class Of '83

Parting Thoughts

Go for it!

Friday night, party time!

Chill out!

What? You egg!

I'm ready to go home!

Gross me out!

Hark, I hear horses!

I hate it!

That's life!

You ain't grown!

I gotta pass History and English!

Totally!

Junior Class Officers

This year four people ran for junior class president. The junior class chose Wayne Shoffner as their president for the 82-83 school year.

Wayne's main duty for this year was to help organize the junior-senior prom. He received help from Patricia McDowell who was the junior class secretary. Together, they helped make this event one of the most memorable occasions in a junior or senior's high school year.

The junior class executive committee members held a lot of responsibility in representing the upcoming senior class. On the committee, there were four juniors who attended all meetings of the Student Council, attended meetings of clubs in which they are involved, and assisted other class officers in any way possible.

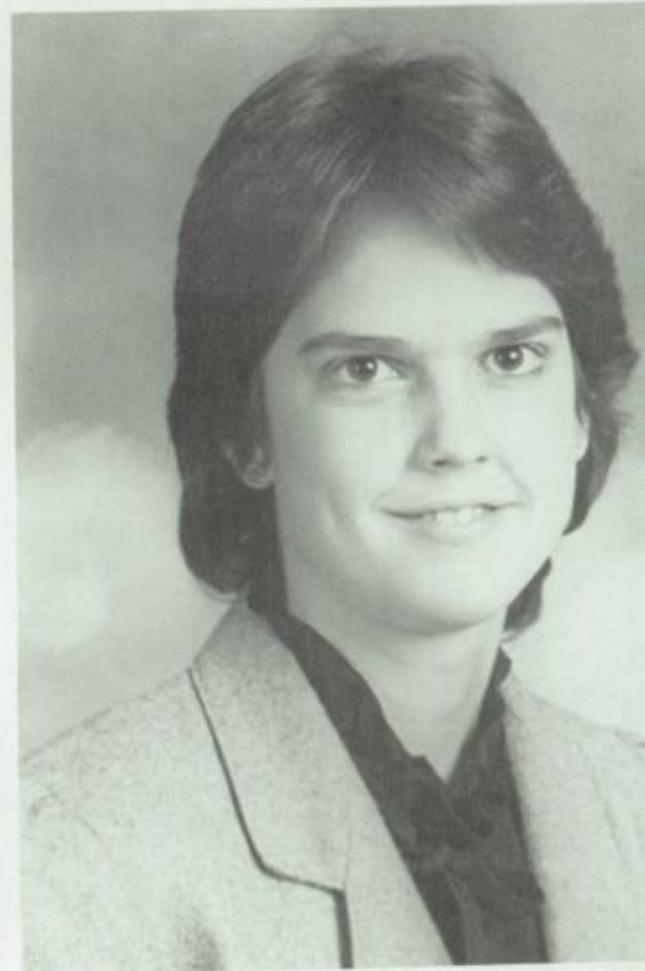

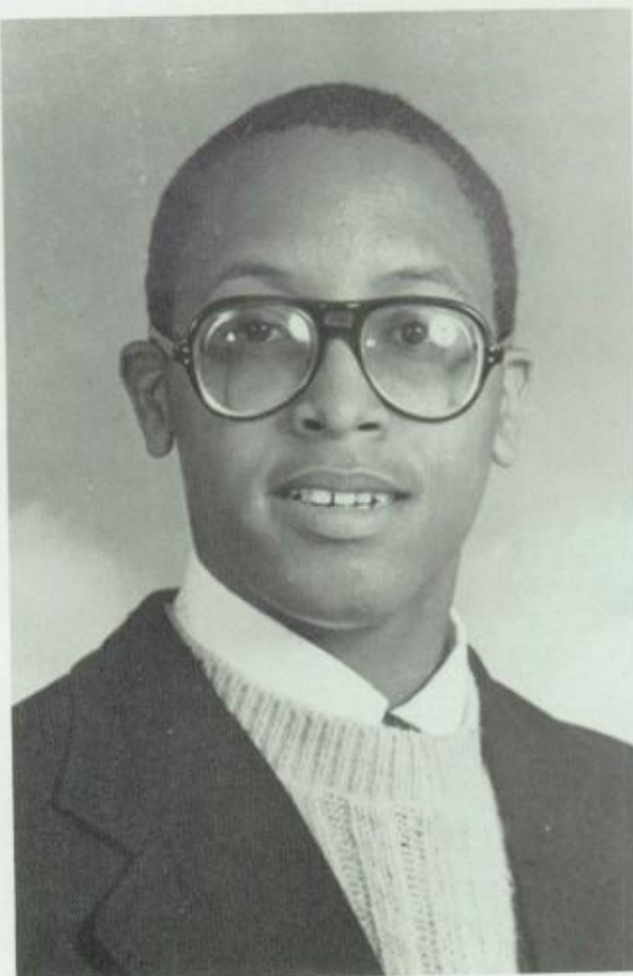

We know that the junior class feels privileged to have such fine people leading them onward into their senior year. They all have set good examples for the class of '84 to follow.

This year the sophomore class made the decision to have Michele Lee as their class President, and Wendy Lewis as their Secretary. These two girls took on the major duties held by the sophomore class.

The executive committee also held a lot of responsibilities this past year. They attended all meetings, and made sure that the upcoming events were voiced to their sophomore class. The class of 1985 should be very happy to have such responsible leaders to help coordinate the year's activities for them.

President: Scotia Lee

Secretary: Renee McNatt

Gaining new experiences and learning new abilities were two major goals for the freshman officers and executive committee members. By close observation of other members, the development of leadership was fully acquired.

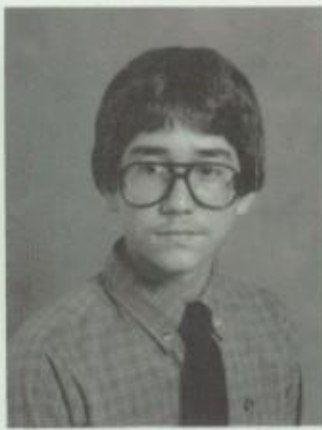

These members met the expectations which had been set for them. Future members will be able to rely on advice from these members and their previous knowledge will make future members be even more prepared.

The freshmen class made good decisions when they chose Scotia Lee as president, Renee McNatt as secretary. The executive members were Anita Bigelow and Chris McDowell. It is not always easy for a class to choose these people because they have to keep in mind that they are not voting on popularity.

The Top Ten

In order to be in the Top Ten we set our high goals and values in life and struggles to obtain them. We must be self-motivated and willing to study to receive the high grades. After years of determination the efforts put forth will be rewarded.

As we set out on our new and separate paths, we should take time to thank all of our inspiring teachers. They instilled the importance of studying in most of us. To all of the excellent teachers, in the entire Burlington City School System, we owe a deep appreciation for their encouragement and dedication.

Also, we should thank our parents for all of their support and love as we struggled through our years of education. We hope we have made you proud.

We've Taken The Challenge!

The National Honor Society was under a new advisor this year. Ms. Taylor took the responsibility of handling the fifteen new members of this club, along with Mrs. Poteat. The members manned phones at WBAG radio station for an Easter Seals Telethon to raise money for handicapped children to go to Camp Easter. There was also a special scholarship open to the members of this club.

The members of the NHS for 1982-83 were Natalie Stanfield, Loryn Payne, Kent Thompson, Arlene Bridges, Ms. Taylor (Advisor), Annette Gumm, Eric Crawford, Lisa Brown, Renee Thorne, Todd Lee, Amy Willetts, Rhonda Baynes, Janice Andrews, Sherry Smith, and Kay Ruff.

Ms. Taylor explained the scholarship to Sherry Smith.

The sponsor of National Honor Society, Natalie Stanfield, was escorted by Keith Woody.

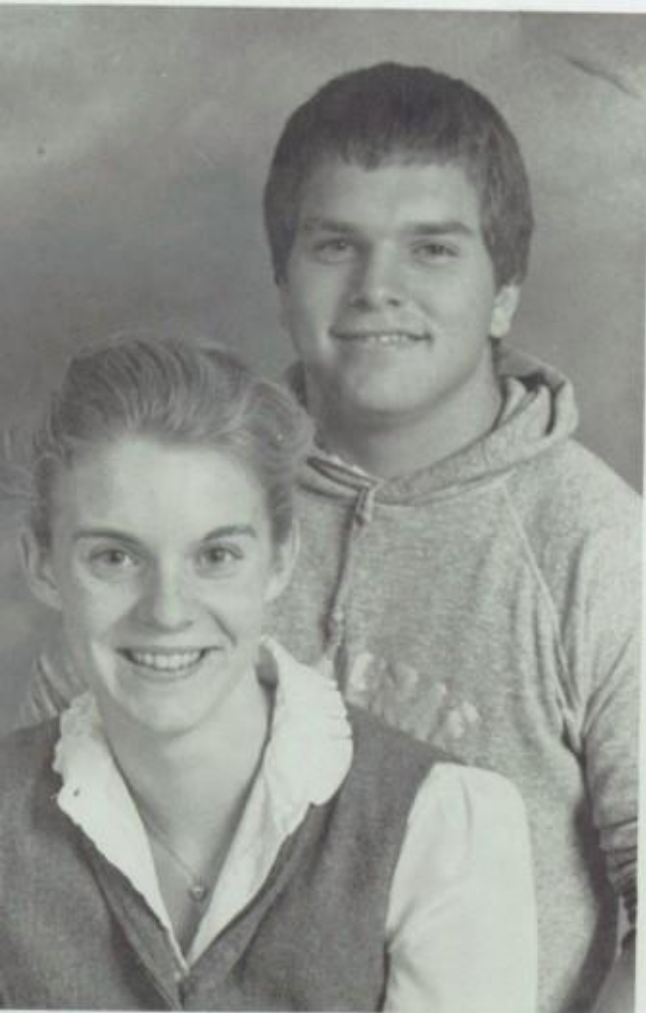

The 1982-83 members of the Golden Plume were formally inducted on February 26, 1982. These members were Janice Andrews, Rhonda Baynes, Arlene Bridges, Lisa Brown, Cindy Collins, Tammy Fuqua, Annette Gumm, Loryn Payne, Kay Ruff, Sherry Smith, Natalie Stanfield, Kent Thompson, and Renee Thorne.

Over the years it has become a tradition for the English Honor Society members to plan some sort of educational travel experience. The 1981-82 club went to New York to see a Broadway play. Last year's club spent three days touring the World's Fair and Biltmore House and Gardens.

The trip planned for this year's members was the best yet. Eight lucky people went to London and Paris from March 31-April 8. Seven days were spent in London and two in Paris. These eight people saw three plays, one performed by the Royal Shakespeare Company. Later tours included Windsor Castle, Stonehenge, and Oxford.

The Secretary of the EHS, Arlene Bridges, kept the minutes of all the meetings.

The sponsor for the English Honor Society, Cindy Collins, was escorted by Tony Poulin during Homecoming Activities, and is pictured above with Scott Barfield.

Members from the 1981-83 club, Chuck Kelly, Bryant Barnhardt, Lorie Vaughn, Miss Siddle, and Walter Brom, prepared to leave for the World's Fair.

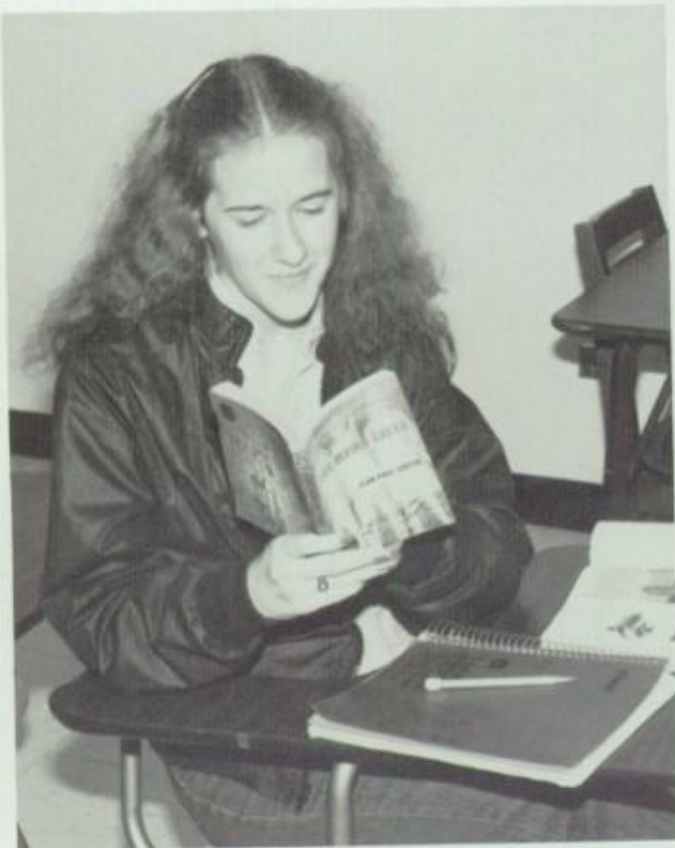

We're Ready For

The French Honor Society functions to stimulate interest in French, reward high scholastic attainments in the language and create enthusiasm for the culture and civilization of France. To be inducted, students must be enrolled in the third semester of study and have an average of 3.5 or higher. They must also have maintained a 2.8 or higher in other school subjects.

Last year Barry Hicks, Patrice Cain and Paula Hoyle presided over the induction of five new members into the honor society. These students were Eric Crawford, Lisa Gentry, Loryn Payne, Kim Richmond and Natalie Stanfield.

The Foreign Experience

The Spanish Honor Society had a good year. The club worked diligently and closely with the Spanish Club.

The Spanish Honor Society helped with the Christmas party. They also helped with the Christmas Cheer Family.

The Club has been to the Planetarium, and they plan to go to the North Carolina Asheboro Zoo.

Cavalier Success Stories

Governor's School is for sophomores and juniors who meet the state GT criteria. The school selection is made based on teacher recommendation, grade point average, and test scores.

North Carolina offers two areas of study. These are in the performing arts and academics. Cummings is fortunate to have had Christi Willets, Ann West, Todd Lee and Loryn Payne as its representatives.

Todd Lee, Loryn Payne, Ann West and Christi Willets have shared fascinating Governor's School experiences with both the faculty and fellow students.

Anne West enjoyed a game of backgammon with a friend.

The Cummings Math Team members were Annette Gumm, Todd Lee, Loryn Payne, Renee Thorne and Amy Willets. They entered the Elon College Mathematics Contest on April 9, taking a comprehensive math test of 35 questions with a time limit of 70 minutes. The finalists in the regional contest were eligible for the state contest held May 3, 1983.

High IQ members are evaluated and selected by a teacher committee. Under the direction of Mrs. Anne Hartsell, these students competed at A & T University in February against approximately 40 schools.

Math Team members were Amy Willets, Annette Gumm, Renee Thorne, Todd Lee, Loryn Payne. Their Advisor was Mrs. Chloe McPherson.

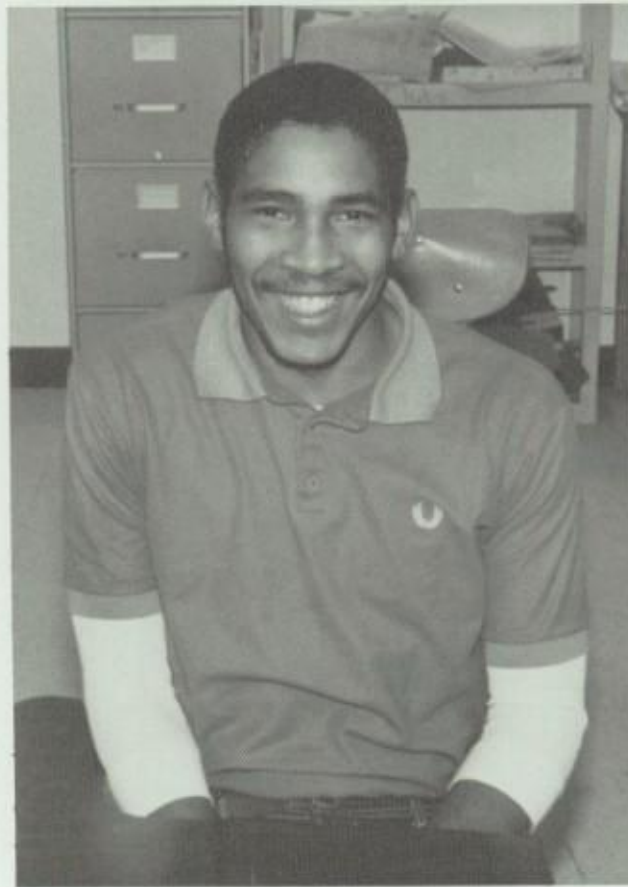

High IQ members were Rodney Evans, Lisa Brown, David Leonard, Renee Thorne, Todd Lee. Their advisor was Mrs. Anne Hartsell.

Stars Shine Through

Cummings High School has always been an exceptional school with exceptional students. Many among our ranks have won awards for excelling in numerous areas. Their accomplishments reflect superior performance which exemplifies the Cummings motto, "Second to None."

Because of Leon Waddell's exceptional work for the Cavalier football team, he was chosen to play in the Shrine Bowl.

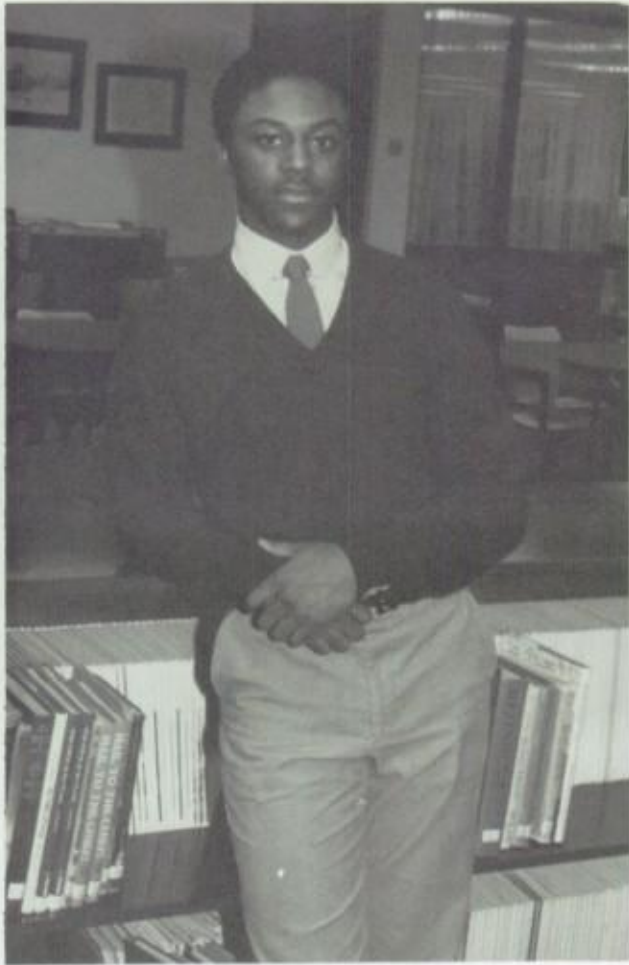

Kent Gattis was chosen to be on the All Tournament Team for the Holiday Classics.

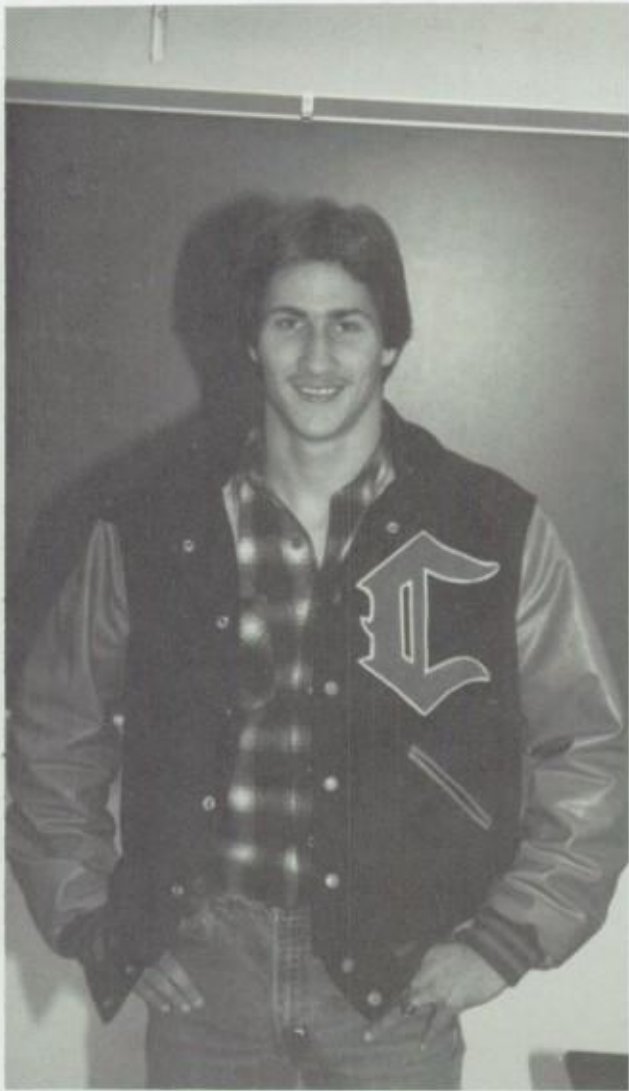

Loryne Payne has worked hard and participated in many activities. For this reason, he was awarded the December Citizen of the Month.

Tim Harvey was named Most Valuable Player during the Cummings' hosted Holiday Classics.

Eric Crawford has received many awards for his artwork. Last year, one of his watercolors represented North Carolina in an art show at Washington, D.C. This year another of his watercolors won a white ribbon in the Burlington Women's Club Show.

Another Cavalier football player was recognized for his expertise — Todd Rhodes was named defensive player of the year.

Last year, Todd Lee's research paper, "The Effects of Competition on the Rolling of Dice," won first place in the district and fourth place in the state.

Those Hollywood Nights

Every year a selection of twelve girls are chosen to compete for the Miss CHS title. Only this year things were done differently. Ten girls turned in their application to be accepted as a contestant. These ten girls went through practicing their talent, choosing their gowns and doing other necessary preparation. Many nights were spent on rehearsing an opening dance to the song New York, New York; performed by the contestants and five escorts.

On February 5, 1983 the pageant took place. With each participant at their best, the performance went over beautifully. Rachel Oliver was crowned the 1983-84 Miss Cummings High School, by the reigning Miss CHS, Lisa Brown. Renay Zimmer was named Miss Congeniality.

The Cummings Boys Track Team enjoyed a successful 23-3 season. They became Mid-State Champions, Mid-State Conference Meet Runners-up, and 1982 Alamance City-County Relay Champions. The team had a host of excellent runners including Redell Blackwell, most outstanding runner; Odell Walker, most outstanding field events; Kenneth Brown, most dedicated; and Troy Hall, most valuable. The team had nine All-Conference runners who are David Tucker, Michael Thompson, Garron Bradsher, Benji Isley, Troy Hall, Kenneth Brown, Orlando Burton, Redell Blackwell, and Odell Walker.

Some members of the track team also set new school records. Michael, Troy Hall, Garron Bradsher, and Kenneth Brown set a new school record in the 1600 meter relay with a time of 3:28.21. Michael Thompson, Orlando Burton, Redell Blackwell, and Troy Hall set a new school record in the sprint medley relay with a time of 3:44.8. Troy Hall set a new school record in the 800 meter run with a time of 1:54.3.

Along with those records, Troy Hall was the 800 meter champion in the Greensboro Sectional meet and in the Western Regional meet. Troy placed third in the 800 meter run in the State meet at NCSU.

Get mean, get tough, Greg Fulmore is ready to do his stuff. This is Greg's third year on the track team. He usually places second in the 800 meter run.

The Girls Track Team had a very good season last year. The 1981-82 Girls Track Team ended their season with four wins and four losses. This record placed our girls fourth in the conference. This was the highest finish and most wins for the girls team at Cummings. The most valuable track award went to Beverly Jeffers. Good job girls!

A Switch In Time

The tennis season for the Cummings' Cavaliers 1981-82 could perhaps best be called an experimental year.

Coach Linda Lee tried different combinations of players in different orders of singles and doubles. The experiment resulted in an all-in-all fair season.

In singles practice, Don Lee rushes to return a serve.

Introducing Cavalier Football

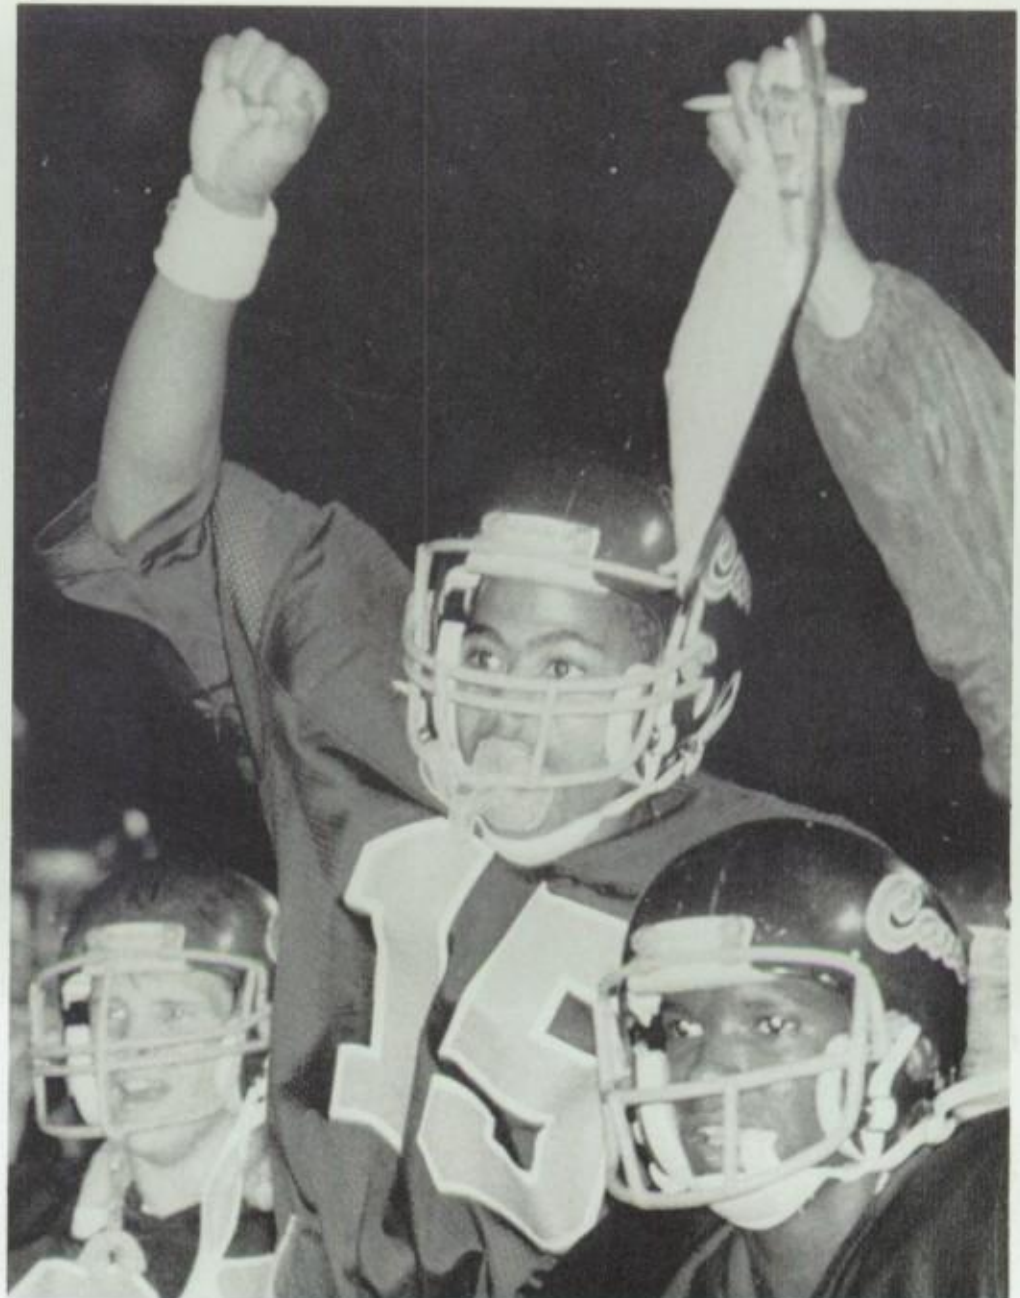

We remember the Williams game. The tears of disappointment and the shouted insults were useless as our opponents kicked a field goal with a tied 13-13 score and 10 seconds on the clock.

Defeat was agony for players and fans when victory had seemed so close. And yet, defeat was not, for how can you label a team defeated which began in August to bring honors home?

This team was a jewel and they were ours.

Remember with us a victorious season of Cavalier Football.

"Wing tight, 33 belly on numbers," is the instruction in the huddle. Then Barry Warren shouts the cadence, "Set 2!" The terms mean nothing to non-football people, but to the Cavs they mean a big yardage gain.

The football season for the Cummings Cavaliers could be entitled "Adversity and Determination." Being picked to finish number one hurt us. It was hard trying to live up to the expectations of the critics. We worked hard and tried to reach our goal.

"What made the Cummings High football team special to us the players was our working together. In order for us to win, it was a combined effort of the offense and defense. The offense had to score and in order to be able to score the defense had to get us the ball." Robert Brewer.

"A lot of people didn't understand how hard it was to practice every day and do the things we did. We worked hard every day, and it paid off." — Todd Rhodes.

The Power Behind The Throne

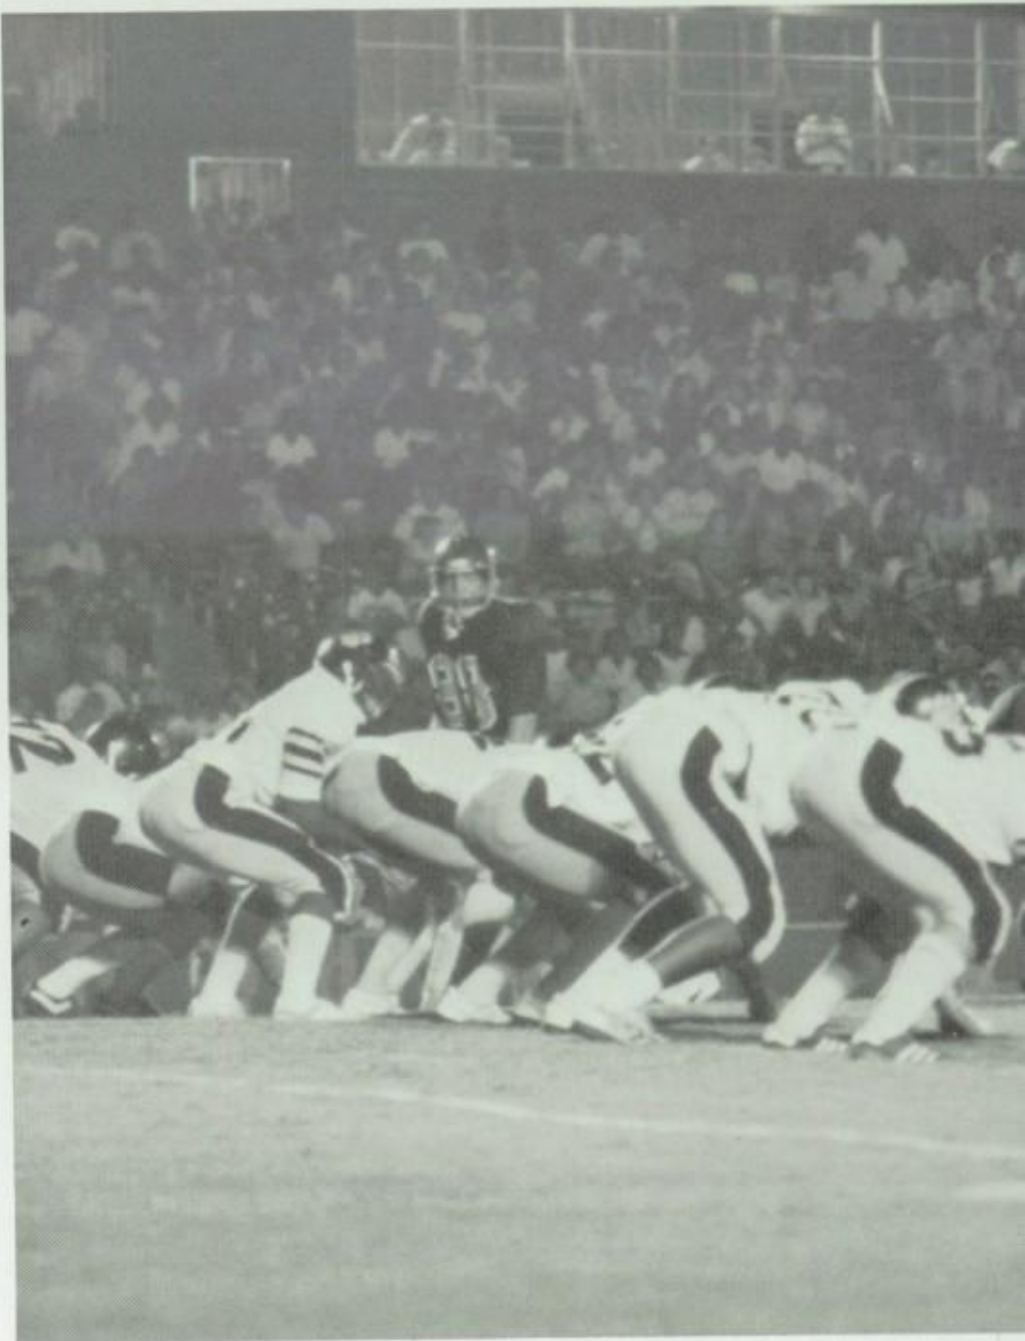

"That wasn't supposed to happen!" Eric Crawford, Orlando Burton and Hank Wrenn watch in amazement.

One Glance At Us Shouted Success

After the game Coach Hanna sees Scott and says "E.T. go home!"

"Read my lips! We're number 1 and we're gonna stay that way!"

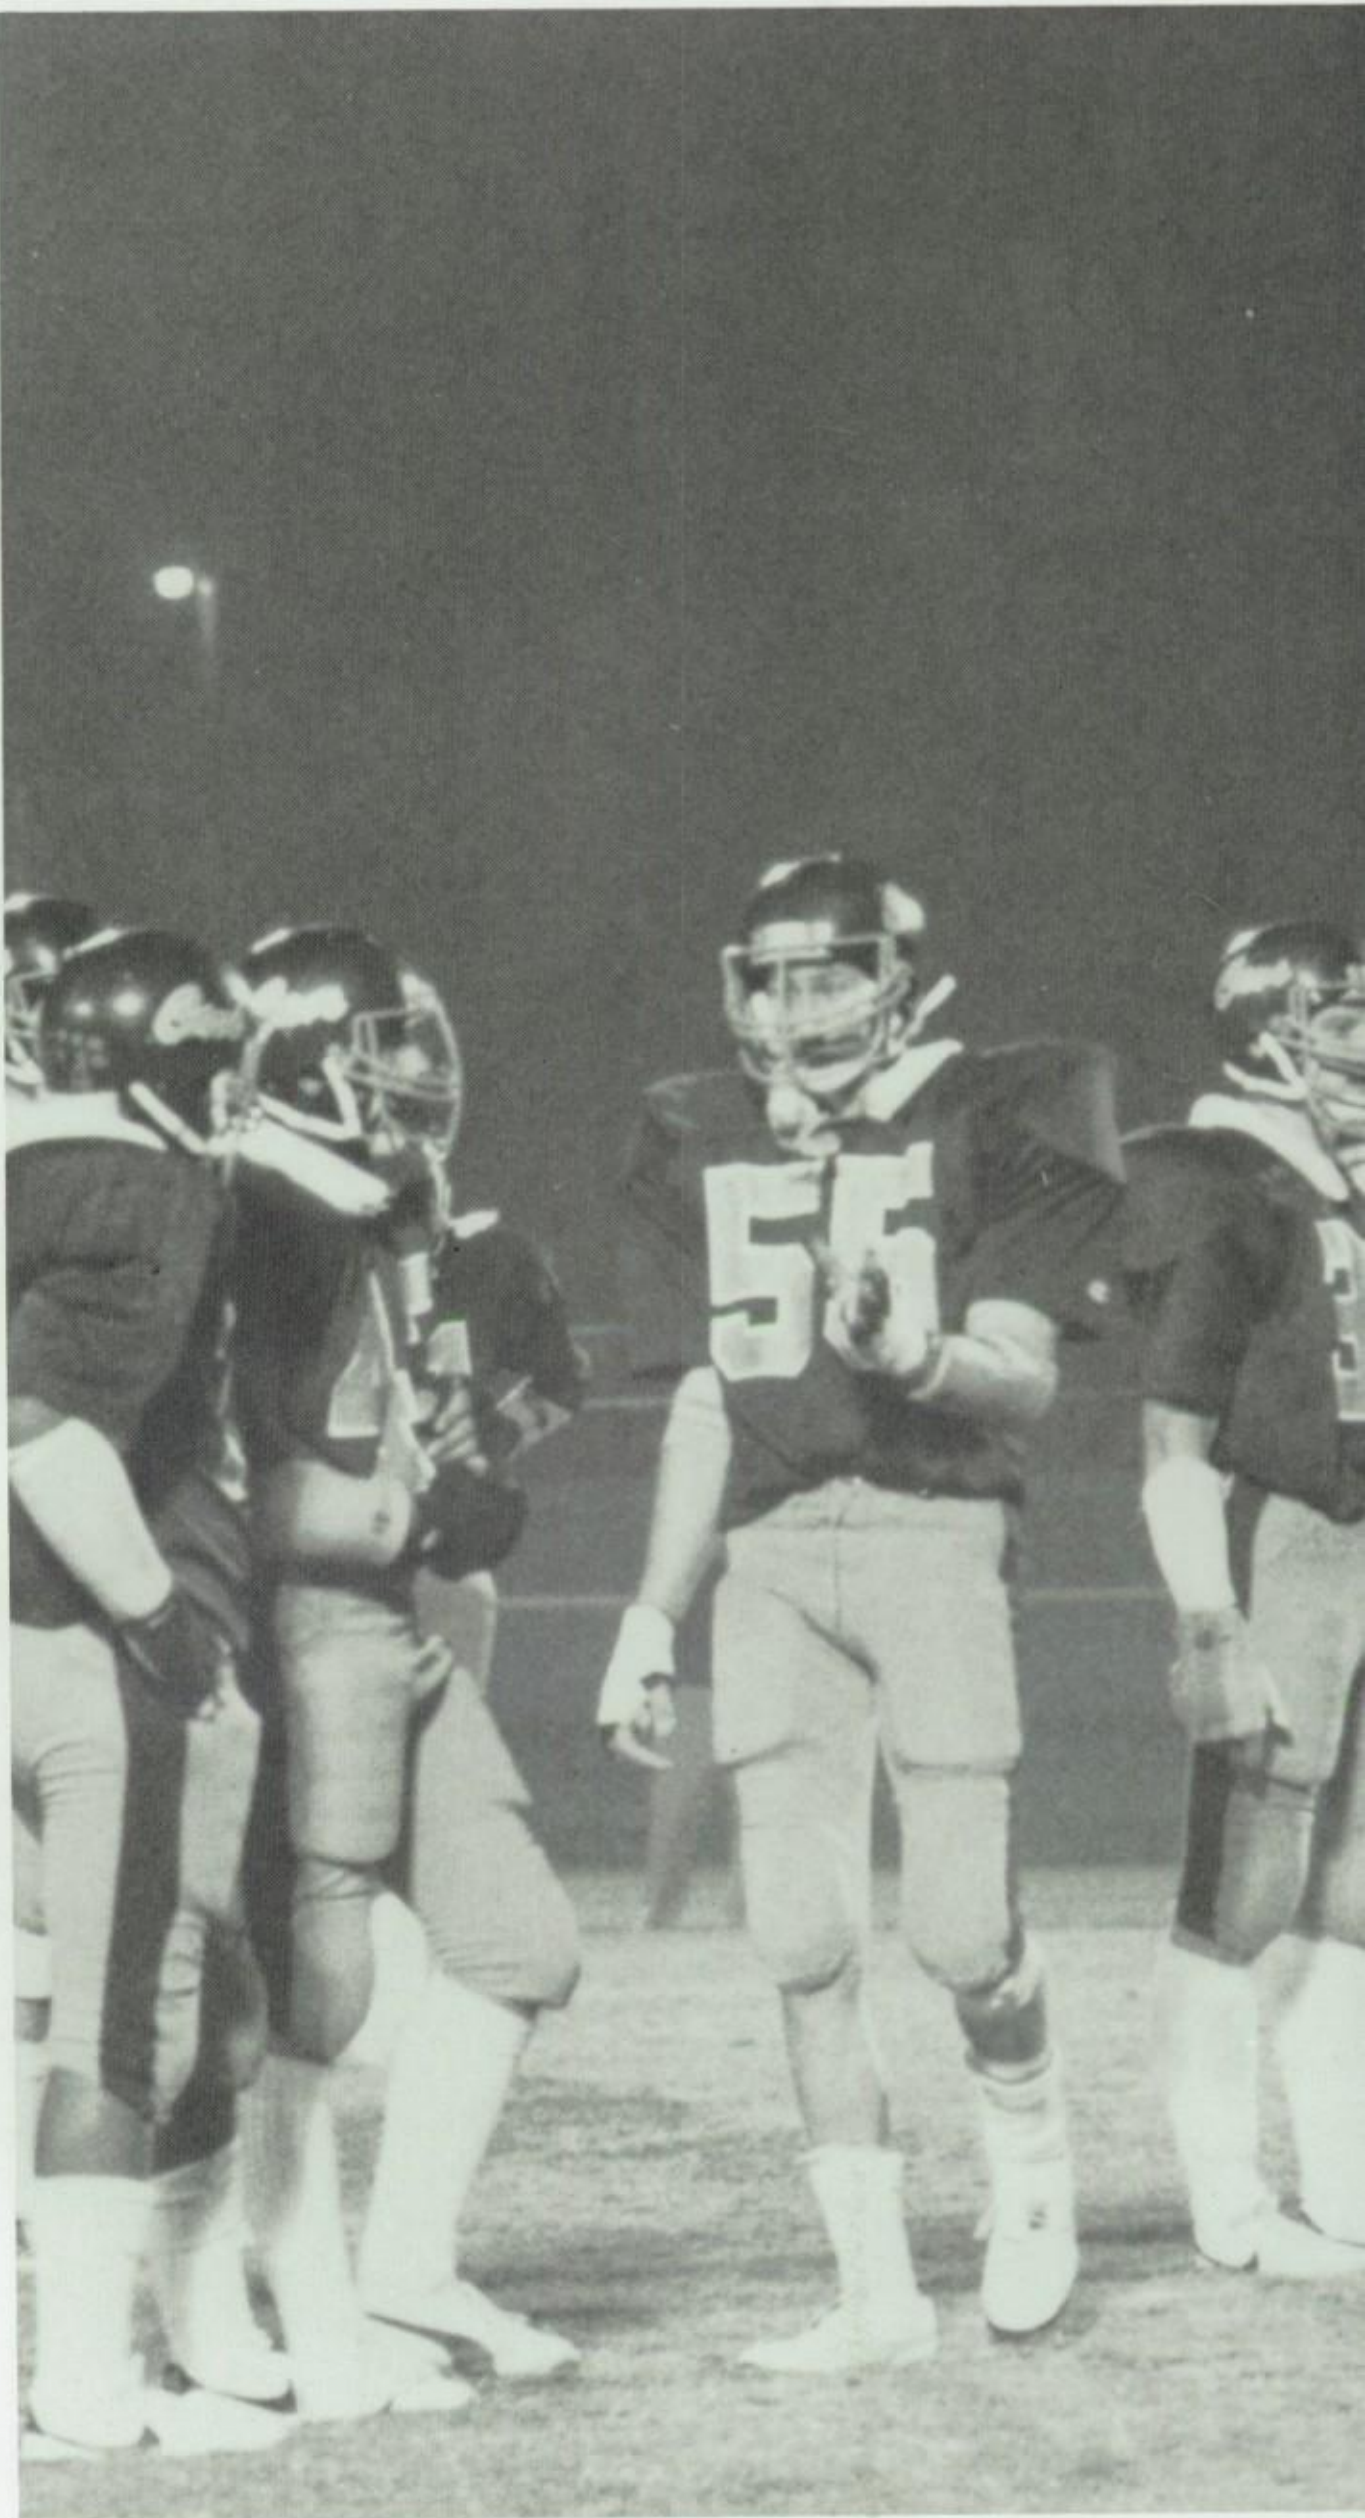

Both of the teams were a little wet, as the 1982 Homecoming game got under way.

The Orange High School Panthers rolled onto the scoreboard first with a fieldgoal, and at the end of the first half the score remained 3-0.

The third quarter seemed to go on forever, but early in the fourth quarter Anthony Daye decided to put a stop to the Panther drive. Orange had the ball on our 15 yard line with a 3rd and 10 situation. Mark Black, the Panther quarterback, stepped back and attempted to pass. The pass appeared perfect since there were two receivers in his path. But thanks to Anthony Daye the pass did not reach its destination.

"I just did what came natural, RAN!"

Our worries were over as Anthony's touchdown and Benny Goins' extra point lead the Cavaliers to a 14-3 victory over Orange.

The Panther offense seems a little shaky as our big, mean defense stares them down.

Coke really added life to Hank Wrenn's game since he was Cummings' leading rusher in the 1982 Midstate.

A Team That Buried The Opposition

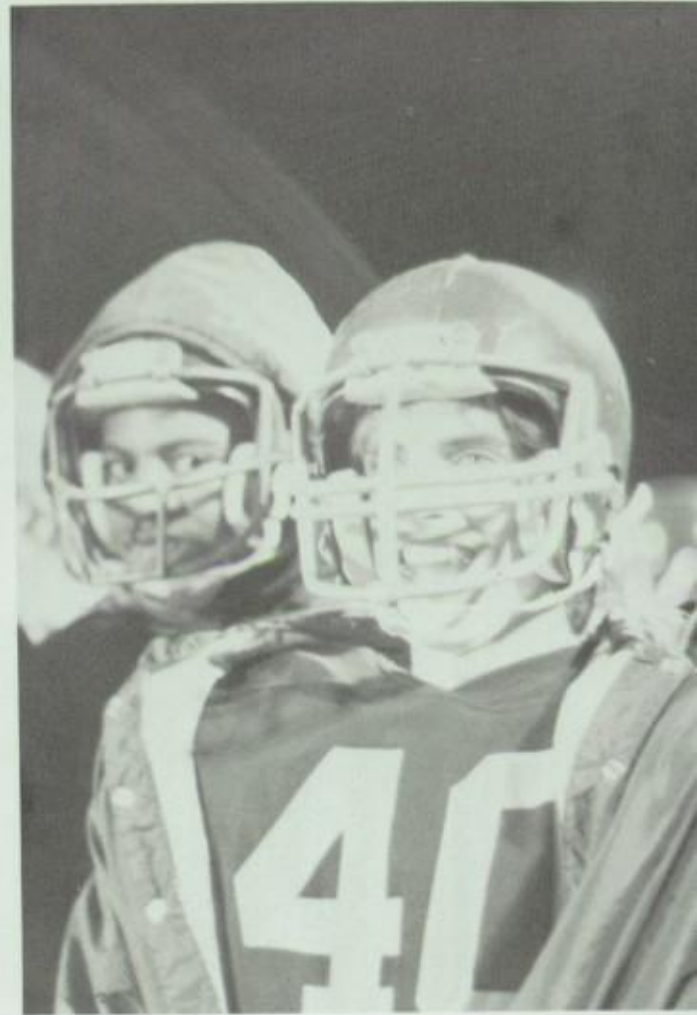

September 2, 1982 the Wildcats of Eastern Guilford came prepared for a tough game and set the stage for a super year for the J.V. football team. The game was quickly coming to a close. With less than a minute to play in the match, the Wildcats had the ball deep in their own territory. Eastern Guilford's quarterback dropped back to pass, but the ball landed right in the arms of Todd Staley. Todd, like a bolt of lightening, returned the ball to the one yard line. Then quarterback, Jeff Minor, ran up the middle on a quarterback sneak for the winning score.

After a hard week of practice the Cavs traveled to Western Alamance to play the match which would decide second place. With three minutes left in the game, the score was 7-6, Western. Western had the ball deep in Cavalier territory and was about to attempt a touch-down pass when Carl Cheek stepped in front of the Warrior receiver and stole the ball right out of his hands. His fabulous catch set up the last and the greatest play of the game. Todd Staley was at quarterback; he pitched the ball to Lee Cohen, who ran around the end and handed it off to Earl Cheek, who in turn pitched the ball back to Todd. The Cavalier fans held their breath as Staley uncorked a beautiful pass which was complete to Lee Cohen for a 75 yard touchdown, the game and a second place finish.

Clifton Wilkens experiences the agony of defeat as the Cavaliers fell to the Red Devils of Graham in the last seconds of the game.

"This is definately ecstasy," replied Kemper Wyatt as Todd Staley intercepted a pass to put the Cavaliers over Eastern Randolph 6-0 in the last seven seconds.

After a job well done, Clifton Wilkens leaves it up to the offense to score.

On your mark, get set, go! Earl Cheek prepares for the kick-off.
“That really didn’t happen, did it?” asks Aaron Birchett.

Girls Give Volleyball A New Bounce

The 1982-83 volleyball team had quite a spectacular year. They finished the season with eight wins and two losses to Williams and Southern Alamance. In the end the girls came out with a second place finish.

Jennifer Bradsher, a two year member, received the Player of the Year Award. She was also named All-Conference player along with Amy Timmons. This was Amy's second year.

Another important force behind the Cavalier team was Debbie Brinkley. Debbie has been the manager of the volleyball team for the past three years. When asked what was the best part about managing the team, she replied, "Coming back after a game and tripping out with the girls."

Though these girls excelled in this sport, all praise cannot go to them. Patty Matthews was the dominant force behind the scene. She was responsible for the preparation, discipline, and outstanding performances of the team. The Lady Cavaliers definitely showed their true colors.

Jennifer Bradsher gives a quick smile as she poses for the camera. She was named All-Conference as well as receiving the Player of the Year Award.

"And I want you to do this . . .," says Coach Matthews as she advises her team for another win.

Amy Allen shows who is boss as she uses her athletic ability to score for the Lady Cavaliers.

We Had It Whipped

The Cavs got off to a great start with a 2-0 record before the disappointing 10 point loss to Barlett-Yancey. But the Cavaliers came back by defeating Eastern-Randolph, the pre-season pick to win the Mid-State crown. Cummings went into the next game prepared for a tough contest, but a hot bunch of Red Devils also came prepared for a tough battle. The Cavs outlasted the Devils by 3-points in overtime. With one game left before starting into the holidays, Cummings traveled to Eastern Alamance only to suffer a 1-point loss.

Although it was Christmas, our guys never stopped playing their game. The Holiday Classic was next on the agenda for the Cavaliers. The first victim to fall in the hands of the Cavs were the Jets from Jordan-Matthews. The Cavs advanced to the finals and faced a rough bunch of Wildcats from Eastern-Guilford. The Wildcats were not enough, the Cavs won their second straight Holiday Classic Championship. Along with the championship two members from the Cavalier squad were chosen to the All-Tournament Team. They were Kent Gattis and Tim Harvey, who was also selected as the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

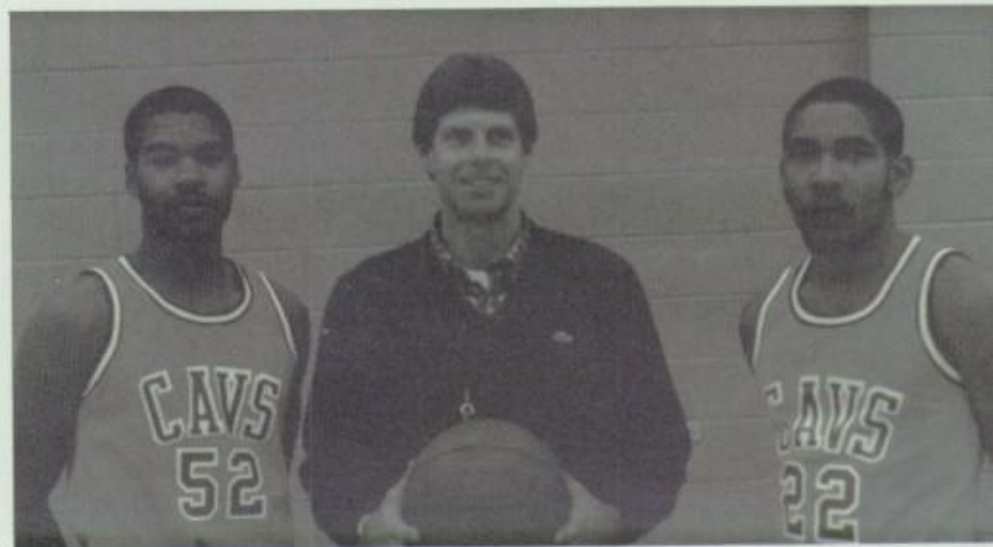

Getting back into the swing of things and regular season play, the Cavs posted victories over Southern and Western Alamance. The Cavs fell prey to only one other team in the Mid-State, Orange and revenge promised to be sweet.

Sophomore Timmy Daye replied "I'm proud to be part of the team that has established a winning tradition." He also said "I feel like we let our fans down when we lose, but they continuously come out and give us (the team) their all and that makes me want to do my best!"

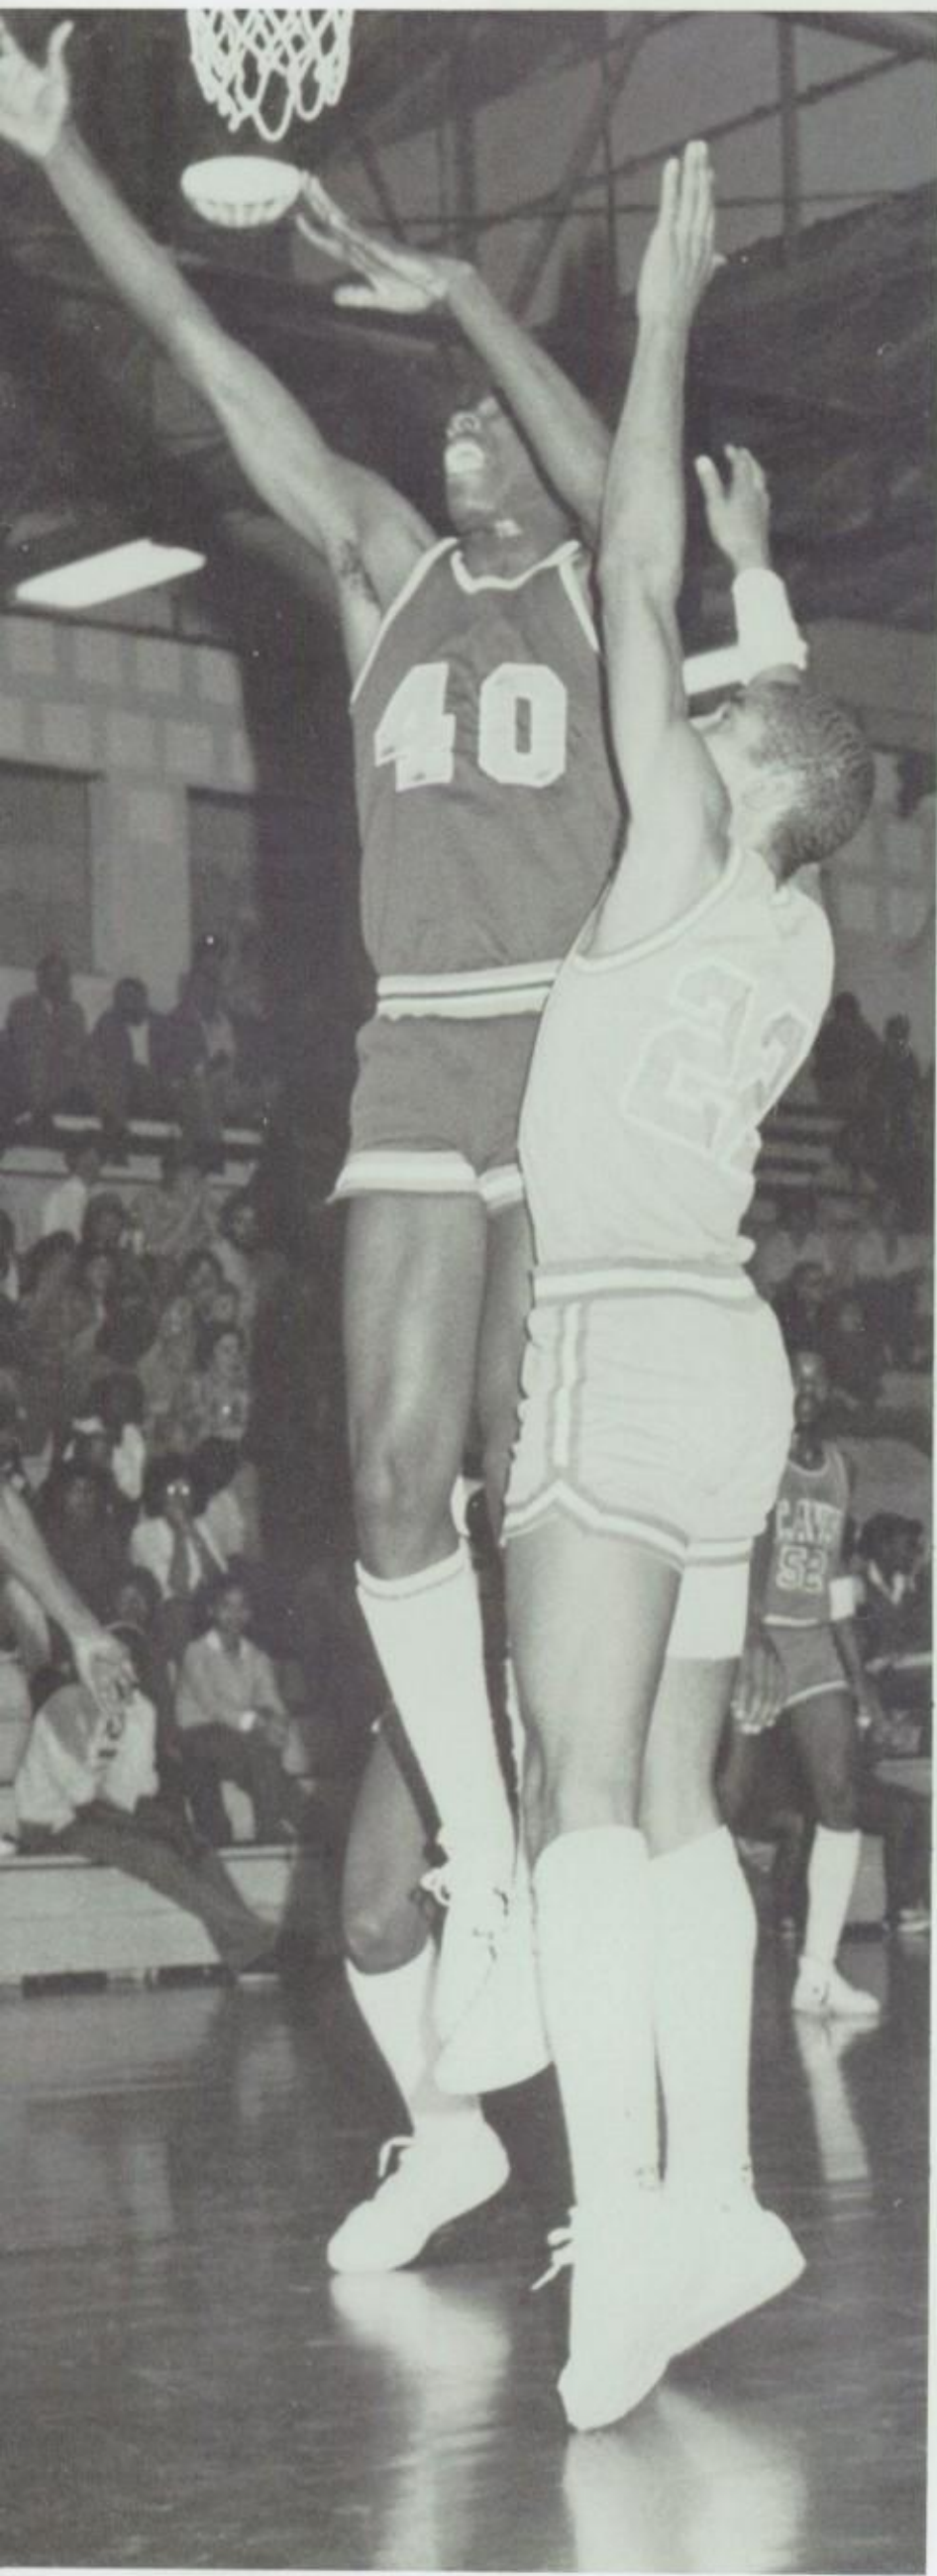

With the ambition and desire that this young sophomore and the other players have, Cummings is sure to continue their winning tradition.

Team captians as chosen by their teammates for the 1982-83 season were Senior Tim Harvey, Coach Jerry Woodside, and Senior Kent Gattis.

Robert Brewer displays his unique technique of scoring for the Cavalier team.

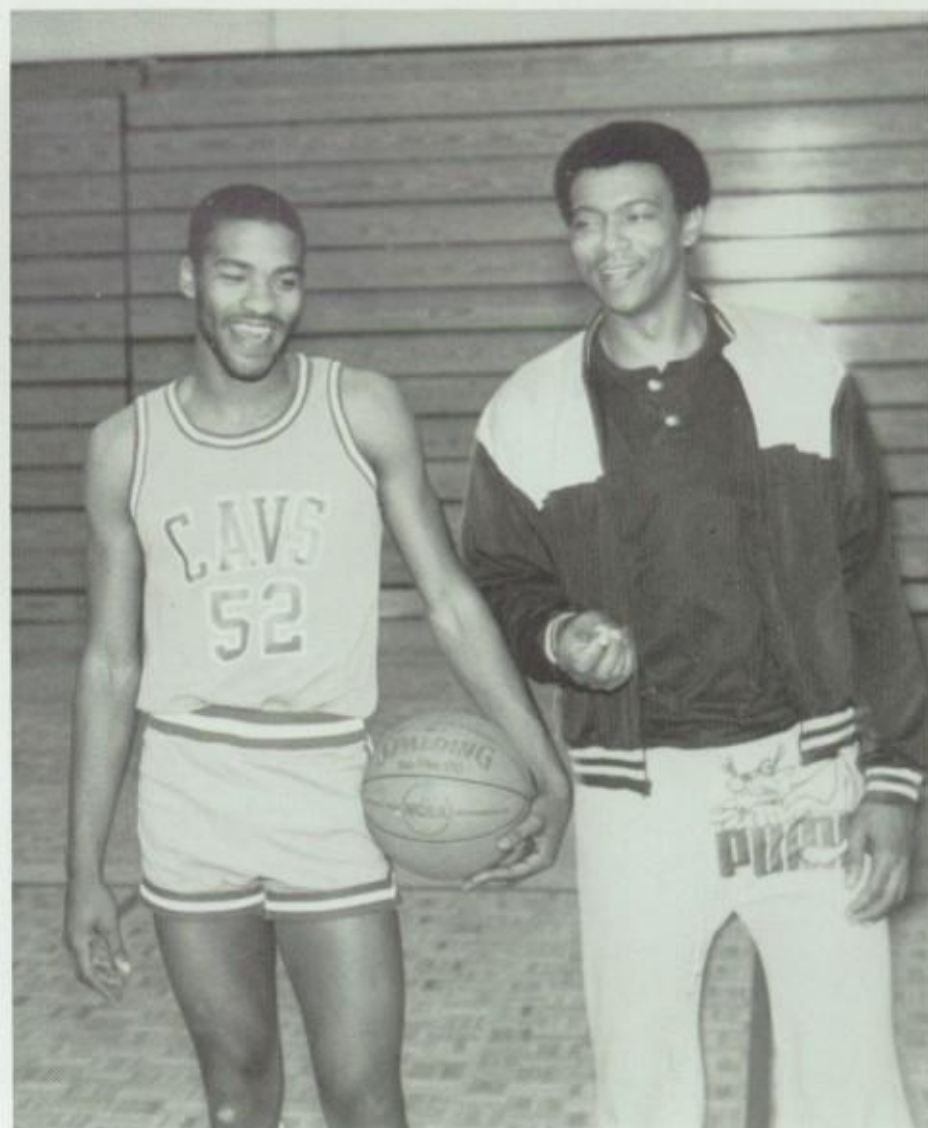

K. Gattis, T. Harvey, and C. Graves wait patiently to see if it will be two more for the Cavs.

Kent Gattis pulls down one of his many rebounds as the Cavs fell to Orange High.

"O.K. the joke is over, what have you guys done now?" Tim Harvey and Coach Thomas Moore display suspicious grins as they await the start of the game against Orange.

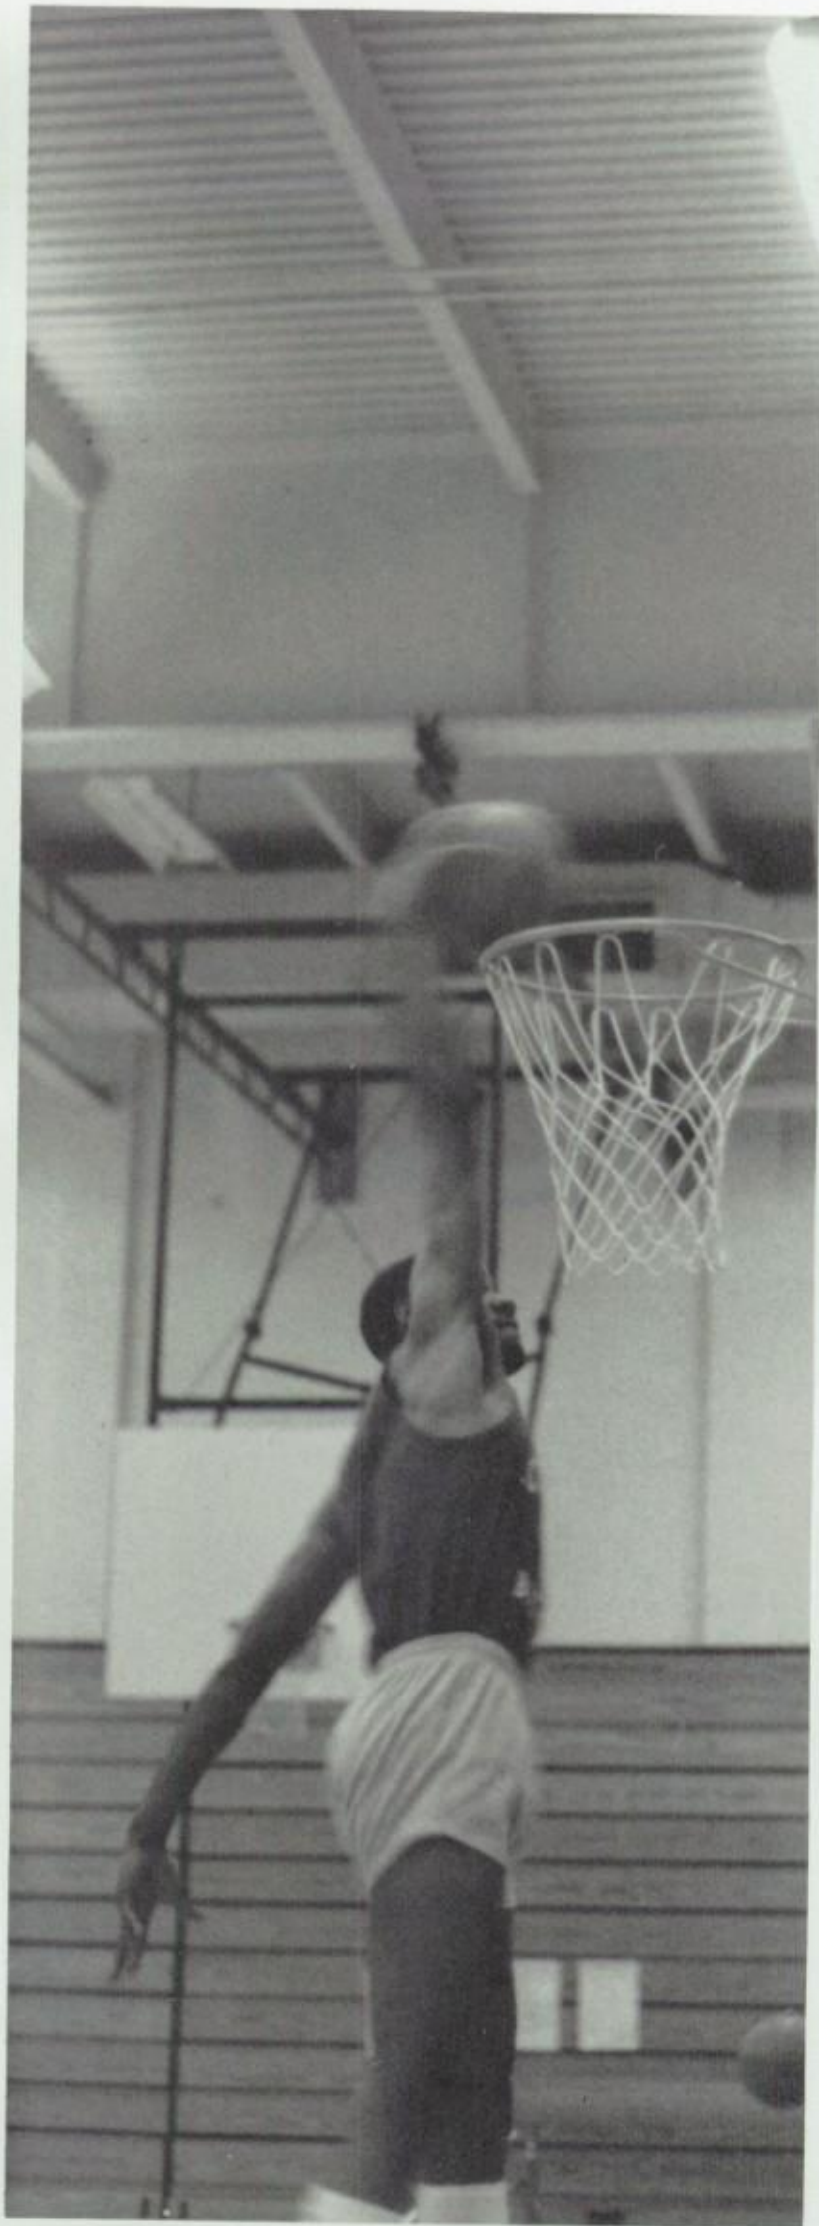

The Cavs knew they had a tough game in store for them January 7. The Panthers of Orange High School put their unblemished record on the line against the Cavs record of 5-2. The Cavaliers had everything it took to win the game: a great team, great coach, the desire, and most of all support. The Cavalier fans stayed with them to the end. With 15 seconds left to play, the score was tied 69-69, and the Cavs had the ball. They were patient and waited for just the right shot. Suddenly a Cavalier player put the ball in the air, but it bounced off the rim and was recovered by Orange. The Panther player was fouled and sank both foul shots. The Cavaliers played a great game, but the second contest was sure to be even better, full of spirit, desire, and REVENGE!

Kent Gattis puts another one back as Tim Harvey and Robert Brewer stand ready to grab the ball.

Look out Bulldogs! Harvey is on the loose with another awesome slam!

The Lady Cavaliers had a very successful 1982-83 season. In the middle of season play, they had a 10-0 overall record and were 6-0 in the Mid-State 3-A conference. The Lady Cavs had six returning lettermen this year and five leading starters.

Coach Matthews felt that she had a very well balanced team. She said that they had good strength inside as well as quickness outside and that they were one of the best teams that she had ever had.

"A team should not only win for themselves," she concluded by saying, "but they should also win for the school."

J.V.'s Don't Mess Around

Christa Graves, Anita Bigelow, Martha Saunders, Tracy Kimbrough, Tina Griffis, Lisa McBroom, Beth Warren, Sabrina Sykes, Belinda Wall.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad of 1982-83 has shown enthusiastic, energetic efforts. They have worked towards perfection and each girl has had the experience of working until six and seven o'clock at night, painting posters, making signs, and most of all, practicing!

Other activities included selling programs at every home varsity football game. In the end, all of their hard work and effort paid off when they performed their polished cheers during timeouts at J.V. basketball games.

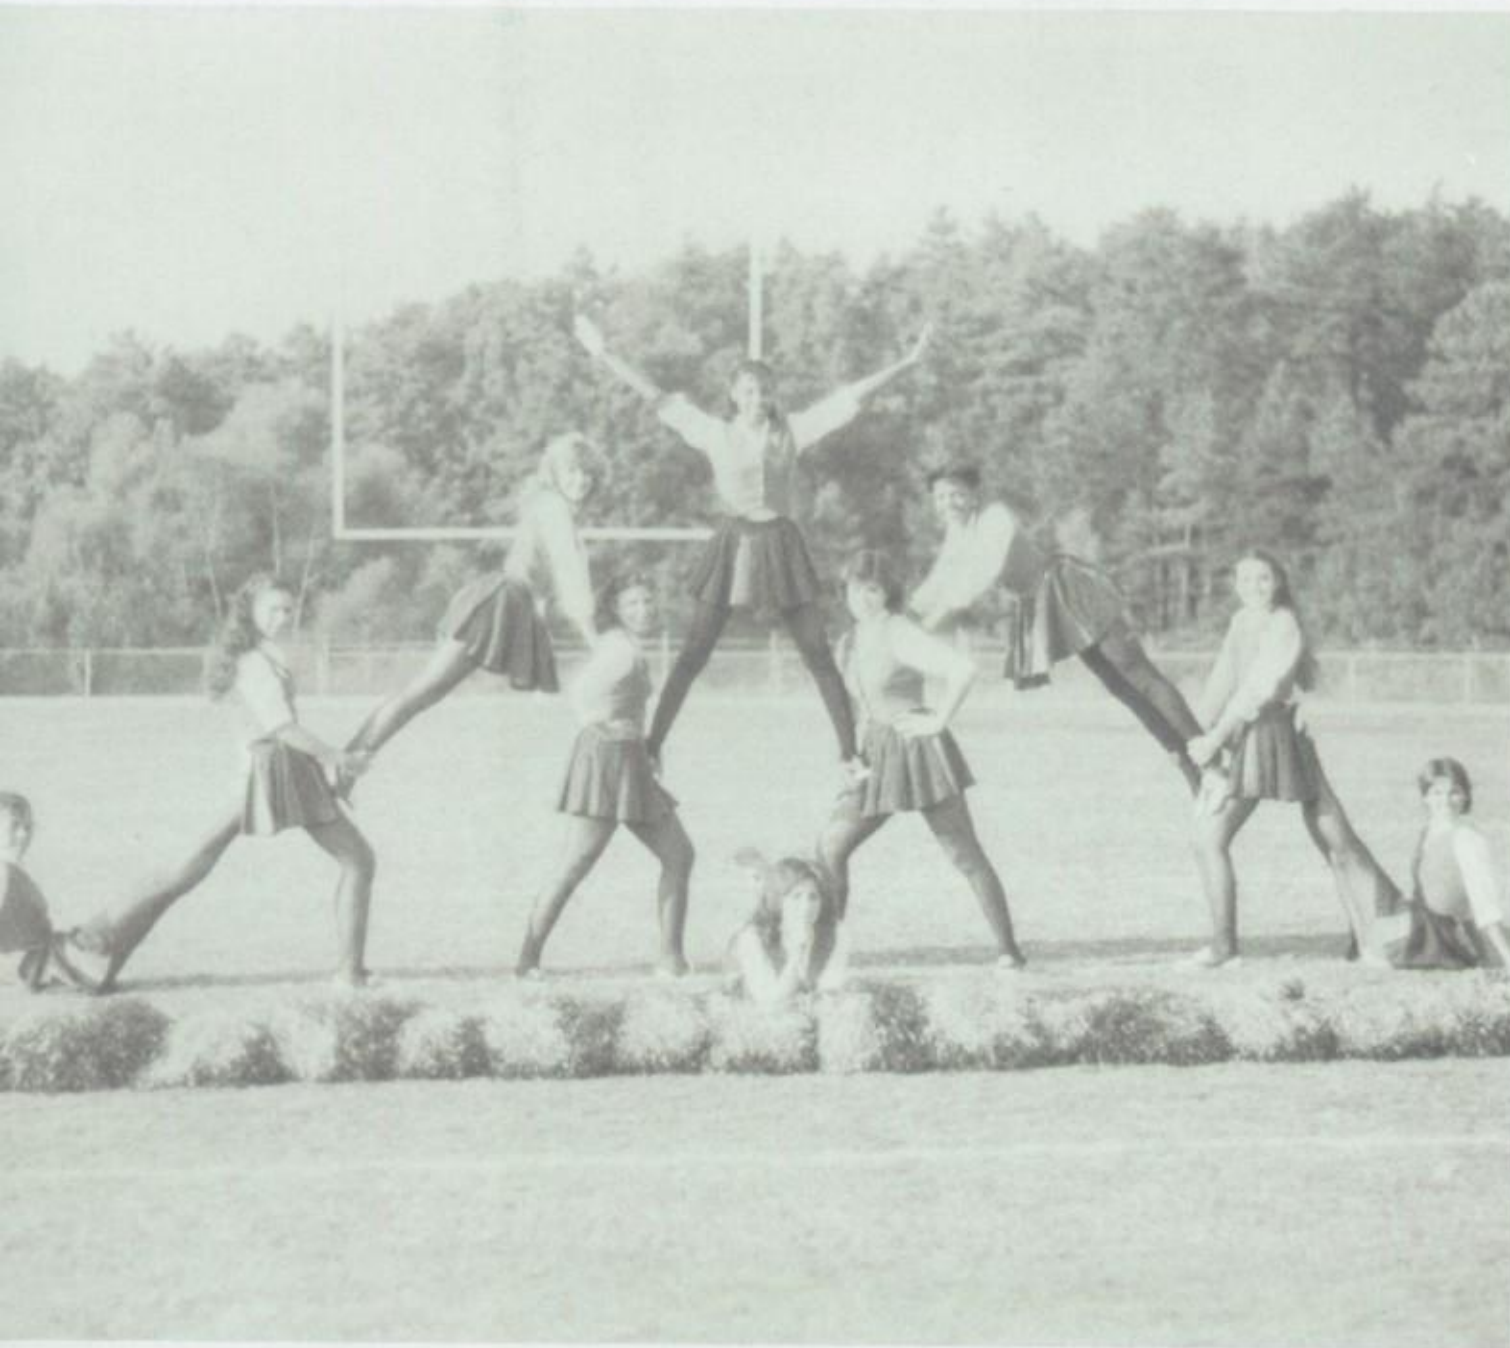

"Alright . . . Okay . . . That's the J.V. way," shout the J.V. cheerleaders as they cheer the Cavaliers on to another victory.

This Year Was a Classic

Cheerleaders. We see them every day in school, but at the games these girls turn into a source of "uncommon spirit." Many hours are dedicated in order to give the varsity squad a "polished look."

During the summer, the varsity cheerleaders attended the International Foundation camp at UNC Chapel Hill. Following a strict schedule, they learned many new cheers including "Cavalier Rock." The hard work was not wasted because they brought home several awards in cheer execution, creativity, outstanding jumps, entrances and exits, and others. The varsity squad was chosen as one of the top five of thirty squads.

Spectators only see the polished look of the cheerleaders, though there is more behind the scenes. Practice makes perfect, and you could find these cheerleaders every Thursday in their warm-up suits and leg-warmers getting ready for Tuesday's and Friday's games. The results are evident, for when they are ready to cheer, like magic, the crowd is in their hands. Spirit starts circulating and then we hear the shouting, cheering, stomping, and just "getting rowdie!"

When asked what the best thing was about being on the squad, Brenda Arnold replied, "I guess the togetherness." Rae Oliver said, "The hardest part was keeping up the spirit while our team was losing." Everyone agreed with Rhonda Baynes when she replied, "I love it, I love it . . ." when asked how she liked being on the squad. Dedication is expressed deeply by these young ladies. Great job girls!

Be All You Can Be

The Future Homemakers of America did lots of things during the past year. The FHA hosted 1026 FHAer's at a District Rally at CHS this fall. These 1026 FHAer's came from eleven different counties.

During the beginning of the year, the members in FHA had a picnic, where they invited new members to come and join in the fun. This picnic was a success! With so many good cooks, how could it miss?

The FHA also held a mock wedding. The members of the Family Life Education classes held simulated wedding in the auditorium Nov. 23. All seniors and their teachers were invited to attend. The wedding lasted 25 minutes, but that was long enough to tie the imaginary knot!

Escorted by Chris Wilson, Tracy Shoffner represented Fha at the Homecoming game.

Any student who was taking at least one business subject was eligible to be a member of the Future Secretaries Association. FSA began this school year with great energy and enthusiasm. The FSA had a very successful fundraising project which financed the Employer-Employee Banquet that was held in the spring. They collected for Unicef and walked in the Crop Walk. Two sets of twins from the Elon Home for Children were elected as their Christmas Cheer project. They and FSA members enjoyed a delicious covered dish dinner and Christmas party at the home of Kelly Lambert. FSA members also participated in the annual spring meeting held at the Sheraton Inn in Raleigh.

This was the second successful year for the Future Business Leaders of America. They participated in the Burlington Christmas Parade on Nov. 20. FBLA attended a state convention at the University of North Carolina in Greensboro. They also went to a leadership conference, where the FBLA competed against other high schools in areas such as accounting and typing. Regular meetings for FBLA were scheduled for the first Wednesday of every month before school. FBLA worked hard during their second year of existence at Cummings.

The newspaper staff worked many long hours on the production of the Cavalcade. The paper was always fun to read and very informative. Five issues of the Cavalcade were distributed this year. Each issue corresponded with Homecoming, Christmas, Valentines' Day, April Fools' Day, and Graduation. Meeting each day 6th period, the members consistently worked to make their finished product superior. Attending workshops, going out to eat after each deadline, and taking a field trip were some of the other activities they did this past year.

Spectrum, the literary magazine of Cummings High School, is published in the spring by a staff of students who have worked hard all year — first to raise money to offset printing costs, then to acquire high quality writing and art work and finally, to put the magazine together. The staff's goal for Spectrum is that it contains a representative cross-section of literary and artistic achievements by CHS students and that it have a wide appeal to readers. The Spectrum staff, the editors, the contributors, and the advisor all believe that a quality magazine reflects favorably on the academic quality of the school.

Louis Perez typed poems and stories to go in the literary magazine, the Spectrum.

Behind Everything We Do

The Marching Band, under the direction of David Rockefeller, had a fantastically fun and sweetly successful year.

The Band performed for every home game and participated in three Band Classics. One of the Classics was Great State of Wilkes Marching Band Classic on Oct. 16, 1982. A few of the awards were first place Drum Line, first place Color Guard, and first place Field Show Competition. Another was the Garner Band Classic in Garner, N.C. on Oct. 23, 1982. There the band garnered first place Horn Line, first place Field Show Competition, and "Pride of Garner Trophy" for the band that exhibited the most pride and discipline, and desire for excellence. The last of the three classics was Cary Band Day on Nov. 13, 1982. The band's awards were numerous as they added first overall Colorguard, first place Flags, first place Parade Competition and "Heart of Cary Trophy" for the band which displayed the most spirit, cooperation, best appearance, marching ability, and best execution.

The Jazz and the Concert Band, also under the direction of Mr. Rockefeller, had a good year too. The Jazz and Concert played for the Christmas Celebration and for the Spring Concert. The Jazz Band played for most of the home basketball games. The Concert Band played for graduation.

There's More To Printing A Yearbook

Crystal Tate organized the advertisement section of the annual.

Cindy Collins doubled as the annual's business manager.

Tammy Lankford and Tamesia Mansfield worked continuously organizing and identifying pictures in the classes section.

Rodney Barnhardt functioned as the official annual staff photographer.

Kim Lapan, Lynda Crabtree, and Debbie Shaw labored over the club's section to meet their deadlines.

The sports section consisted of Kim Sykes, Elizabeth Cox, Lisa Bennett, and Marcie Carter. All worked hard to adequately cover Cummings sports events.

Than Meets The Eye

This year's annual staff worked diligently to make this edition of your yearbook the best. Nulli Secundus means second to none and that thought, along with the theme, carried the staff through the year. Hours of drawing layouts, writing copy, taking pictures, typing information, and proofreading the work made the annual complete.

Alice Tapper tried to successfully fulfill her role as editor.

Ms. Siddle, the annual advisor, worked overtime correcting the staff's mistakes and helping them in every way. Ms. Stout worked closely with Cindy Collins as the business advisor.

Cindy Collins, Rhonda McClure, and Tabbi Pruitt diligently worked to meet the student life section's deadlines.

Student assistants were a vital part of the office work here at CHS. These aids helped everyone in need of clerical assistance and office organization.

The library assistants labored among the literary aisles in the library. They wrote the overdue book slips and placed them for distribution in the homeroom teachers' boxes. They also put the books on the shelves, took inventory, stamped books, and helped students find books. Finally, they straightened up the library every day.

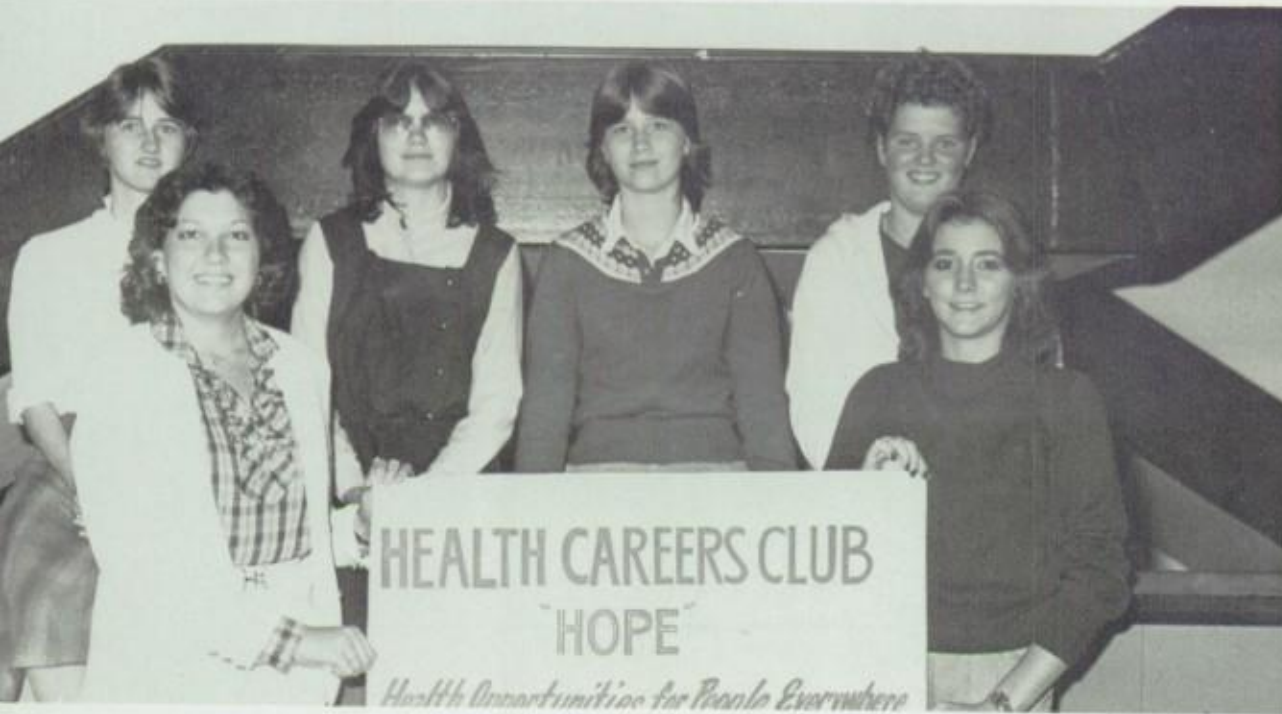

Office assistants ran many needed errands for the secretaries and principals. They also helped visitors who came in the office. They answered the phone, filed pupil tickets, and operated the office machines.

To become a bus driver for the Burlington City Schools, the prospective drivers had to fill out an application and have teacher recommendations. They did two days of class work and spent three days on the road — a total of approximately 45 hours getting ready to be safe drivers. We commend you for your dedication and hard work.

Quality Comes In Small Organizations

The Cummings High School Orchestra performed in October at the Fall Concert, played at Holly Hill Mall on Nov. 16, and performed in the library during both lunches as part of the American Education Week. They also performed again on Dec. 12 for the annual Fine Arts Christmas Concert and on Dec. 14 in the annual All-City Orchestra Christmas Program.

In March, the orchestra members traveled to York, Pennsylvania to do an exchange concert with that city's high school orchestra. The Pennsylvanian students intern will be here in April to perform at Cummings.

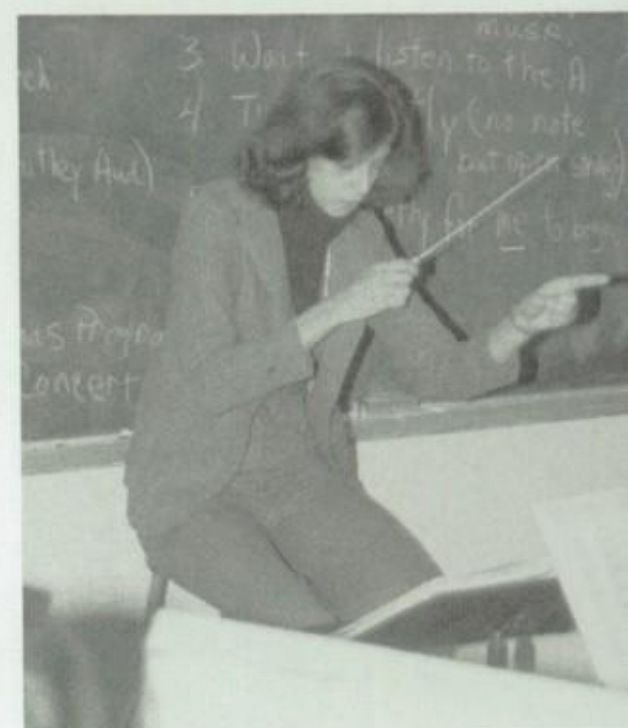

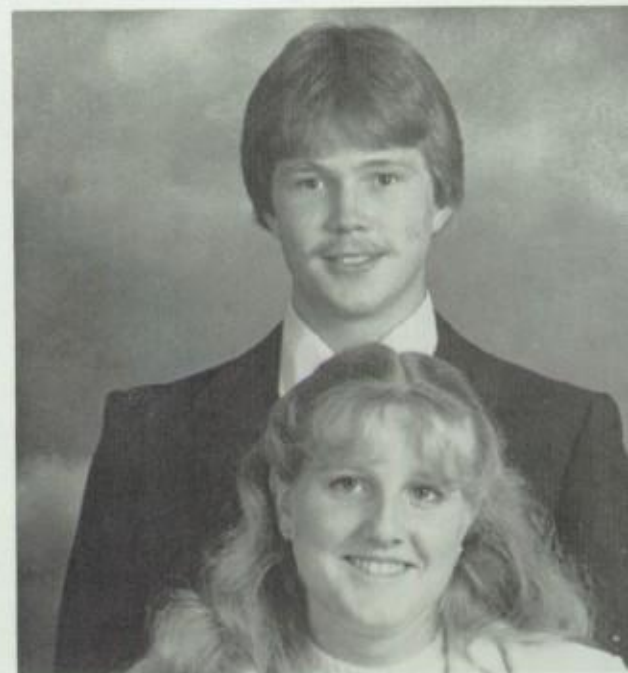

Our small but talented orchestra played for the Honor Society Induction assembly, for the State Contest, Festival, for the Cummings High School Musical, and will play for Baccalaureate.

Singing So Good It Shows

The Concert Choir, directed by Glen Peterson, sang for the Fall and Christmas Concert. The Choir sang at Holly Hill Mall for American Education Week. Members of the choir do not have to try out for the group, but they do have to show an interest in singing. A student director from UNC-G, Krista Marine, helped them learn their Christmas Music.

Mr. Peterson worked hard to have a perfect choir.

We Stop At Nothing

VICA, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, is the national club for vocational industrial students. Its members include students in trade, industrial, technical, and health education courses.

Their motto is "Preparing for leadership in the world of work."

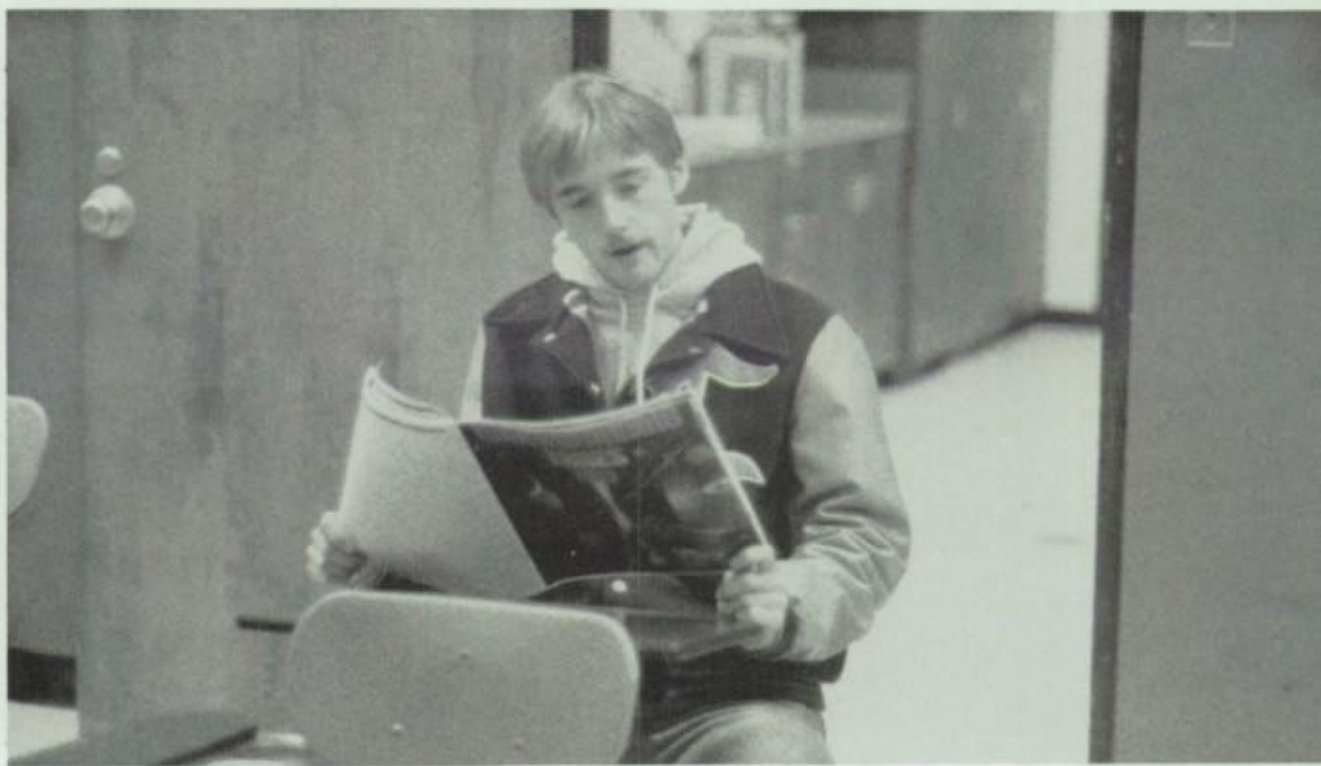

VICA did many things. One was bringing together students with common interest. Another was providing opportunities for leadership development. Finally, VICA helps a student gain confidence and leadership by giving them a chance to compete, excel, and be recognized through a state and national program of contests and awards.

Il Est Passionnant

The French Club was very successful this past year. Initiations started the year off with much liveliness! Future members dressed as French characters for a full day at school. The members participated in a shopping spree before Christmas in Durham. They also celebrated Christmas with a wonderful party in the school cafeteria. This past year the French Club prepared for a trip to Europe. The French Club had many exciting plans and activities.

Row 1: Left to Right: Loryn Payne, Alisa McCollum, Rachel Oliver, Gary Westbrook.

Kim Lapan, Loryn Payne, and Michael Thompson, made plans for the Christmas shopping spree.

Or It Is Terrific

Kevin Sartin dreamed of Mrs. Milli's Christmas party.

Renee Thorne represented the Spanish club at Homecoming.

The main purpose of the Spanish Club, according to Mrs. Millicovsky, is to learn, care, and love. Every month Mrs. Millicovsky had a party for the students who had birthdays that month. Each birthday senior or senorita hit the pinata. In addition, the Spanish Club helped Mrs. "Milli" with a needy family. The club also celebrated with a Christmas Party at Mrs. Millicovsky's home. They helped decorate her home with the Christmas spirit, and they brought their presents to share in this fellowship. After dinner Santa Clause delivered the gifts that the students had bought for their parents. As usual the Christmas party was a success. In January the club had a luncheon for the teachers. They really enjoyed it. Also, the Spanish Club had a party for the cafeteria staff and janitors.

Explosive Entertainment

The Chemistry Club was one of the most unusual organizations at Cummings. From the unnevering tactics of initiations to the awesome monthly meetings, there was not a dull moment. Being hung facing the snake-pit, being branded, and tolerating the electric chair were just a few of the peculiar initiations faced by each member. The peculiarity did not stop there. It continued through the regular meetings with explosions and unpredictable reactions. This was a most uncommon organization!

Jon Robertson, Eddie Aldridge, Dwayne Taylor, David Coble, Jimmy Marine, Belinda Haith, and Wayne Shoffner prepared for their experiment.

Holly Walker and Sharon Locklear performed the flame test successfully.

The Latin Club, Legio Lingual Immortalis, a new language club to Cummings. They were busy organizing their constitution and electing officers. They also participated in activities which increased the clubs understanding of Roman Culture. As a new club, these members accomplished many things.

The Junior Civitan is a service club that met at least once a month. The Junior Civitan Club took part in many activities during the school year. They are sponsored by the local Civitan Club, and they gave much time to the school and community projects. The Junior Civitan Club raised funds for the Association of Retarded Citizens. They held a Christmas party for children from the Elon Home and presented them with gifts. These young men participated in the Homecoming activities and the parade. They distributed sweets to the faculty at Christmas and helped collect for the heart fund, attended the annual district meeting, and had a successful fund raising project.

For The Good Of The People

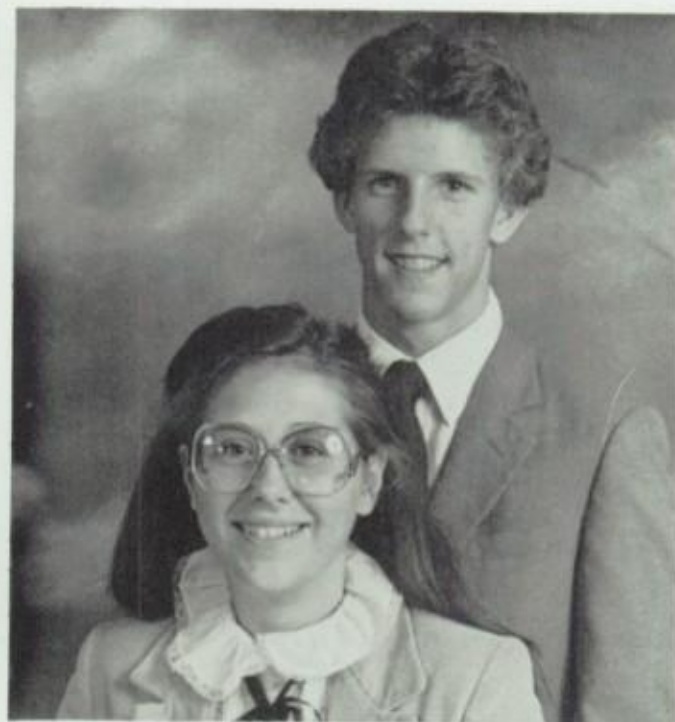

The Student Academy of Science was an organization composed of students having an interest in science and wanting to increase their knowledge. Each member of SAS completed a research project. Advised by Mrs. Oliver, these papers were taken to state and district conventions. There the projects were studied and judged among other students' research projects. Some of the members of SAS received recognition for their outstanding work. Among other activities of SAS was renovating the Nature Trail and taking field trips to state zoos.

Escorted by Allen Horne, Kim Payne represented the SAS at Homecoming.

Holly Walker, Crystal Tate, Renee Thorne, Lisa Gentry, Todd Lee, Rachel Oliver, and Ava Miles attend regular meetings.

Classic Organizations

The student council dedicated their efforts toward involving as many members of the student body in its activities as possible this year. The tutoring program was continued. In this program, students helped other students in the areas that they needed the tutoring most. The student council also supported the faculty through a teacher appreciation project. The Custodian Appreciation Day was another project.

A calander was made to put up at the front of the school. Every club's activities for the month was designated on the proper date. A mirror for the stadium girls' bathroom was bought with the student council funds. Several committees were developed from the student council members. Each committee supported different projects. The student council deserved thanks for their contributions to Cummings High.

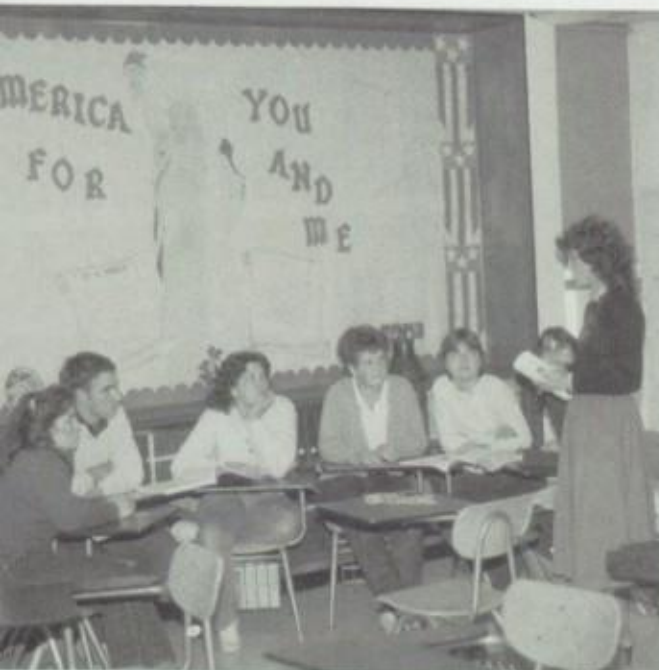

Left to Right: Row 1: Rachel Oliver, Alisa McCollum, Loryn Payne, Ron Alston, Rhonda McClure, Alisa Wilson. Row 2: Patricia McDowell, Tina Roach, Linda Thompson, Seleda Mumphrey, Lisa Graves, Pam Ward, Paula McCaskil, Dawn McIntyre. Row 3: Michele Lee, Myra Jackson, Charles Haith, Debbie Thompson, LaRue Kirkpatrick, Mike Thompson, George Pulliam. Row 4: Anita Francis, Betsy Gray, Milicent Gaylord, Michele Combs, Tracy Lambert, Amy Allen, Kim Fryar, Rhonda Poland, Robin Moricle, Todd Bush, Dana Coleman. Row 5: Robin Bynum, Scotia Lee, Greg Parsons, Louis Perez, Kelli Wicker, Mia Davis, Ann Johnson, Wendy Lewis, Kevin Sartin. Row 6: Desiree Drew, Otis Caldwell, Rhonda Baynes, Barry Lewis, Tammy Coffee, Tamatha Walker, Todd Lee, Karen Jarose, Wayne Shoffner.

Close-Up involved a group of students who traveled to Washington D.C. These students remained there for a week talking to congressmen, lobbyists, legislative assistants, and other important government people. The close-up members also had their share of fun going to banquets, tours, and dances.

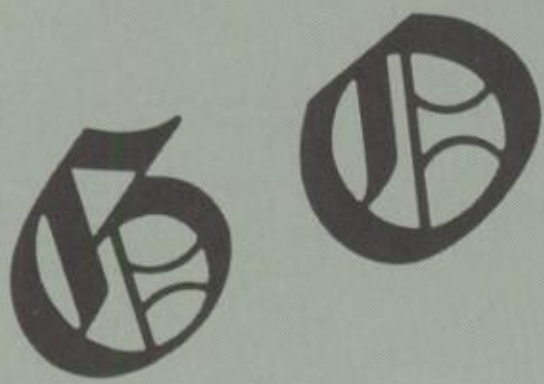

To become a member of close-up, the student had to have a C average and a recognition from all teachers. The students also had to afford the cost, $517.00. During the second semester, regular weekly meetings were scheduled which the members attended. They discussed politics, and terminology, as well as who was who in Washington.

Escorted by Chris Graves, Betsy Gray represented the Bible Club at the Homecoming game.

The Bible Club involved any student who wished to be a member. Advised by Ms. Range, the members developed a better understanding of the Bible through indepth study. They organized a Christmas Party and also visited restaurants during their spare time.

Our congratulations to the Class of '83! This academic milestone becomes the vestibule to your future. Our wish is that each of you will establish a goal for your life that will be enriching for you and the people with whom you will come in contact. If this carries you to higher education — study hard and strive to excel. Should you elect to build your future in a trade — work hard, be dependable, strive to excel. Your future is essentially up to you. The world doesn't owe you a living. It does present an opportunity for you to use your talents to their fullest — to benefit yourself, your family and your fellowman. Our challenge to you, the Class of '83, is to rise well to the occasion. We welcome you the business world and will be pleased to discuss career opportunities with you.

Alterations

This past summer, several annual staff members attended the American Yearbook Journalist's Conference at Davidson College. During our three days of study, we solidified our determination to make this annual different and special.

The Nulli Secundus Staff has worked hard to make this edition of your yearbook. We hope that you will enjoy it and that you agree with us when we say, "The Cummings Spirit is Uncommon."

Special Thanks To:

Mrs. Carolyn Hartley for proofreading

Alisa Wilson for the theme idea

Sharon Norman for the typewriter

Mrs. Hazel Poteat for suppling information
